Examination in Type-writing.

Directing the Commissioner for Government Examinations to make the necessary arrangements for holding the written — at Hyderabad, and informing the Resident at Hyderabad of the same.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., No. 344, Educational, dated 20th July 1903.

Read—the following papers:—

From Lieutenant-Colonel the Hon'ble Sir DAVID BARR, K.C.S.I., Resident at Hyderabad, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated 16th June 1903, No. 3076.

Two institutions for instruction in typewriting have been opened for some time in Hyderabad which are preparing candidates for the Government Technical examinations, Madras. As many of the candidates are however employed in public offices and find it difficult therefore to appear at the examinations even at the nearest centre, the managers of the institutions have requested that Hyderabad may be made a centre for the examinations in typewriting.

2. I am of opinion that it will be useful to hold the examinations at Hyderabad, and have the honour therefore to request that, if there are no objections, you will be good enough to arrange that Hyderabad be made a centre for the examinations in question.

Endorsement No. 347, Educational, dated 24th June 1903.

Referred to the Commissioner for Government Examinations for remarks.

(By Order.)

A. T. PRINGLE,
Asst. Secretary to Government.

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Commissioner for Government Examinations, to the Secretary to Government, Educational department, dated Madras, 11th July 1903, No. 397/4-D.

In returning the letter from the Resident at Hyderabad, referred to me for remarks in endorsement No. 347, dated the 24th June 1903, I have the honour to state that I have no objection to Hyderabad being made a centre for the examination in typewriting if proper arrangements can be made for superintendence and for the conduct of the practical examinations.

Letter—No. 344, Educational, dated 20th July 1903, to the Honourable the Resident at Hyderabad.

In reply to your letter No. 3076, dated 16th June 1903, I am directed to state that His Excellency the Governor in Council will be prepared to constitute Hyderabad a centre for the examination in typewriting if proper arrangements can be made for superintendence and for the conduct of the practical examinations and I am accordingly to request the favour of information as to what arrangements are proposed.

A. G. CARDEW,
Ag. Secretary to Government.

READ—also the following papers:—

From Lieutenant-Colonel the Hon'ble Sir DAVID BARR, K.C.S.I., Resident at Hyderabad, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational department, dated 25th August 1903, No. 4352.

With reference to your letter, No. 344, Educational, dated the 20th July 1903, regarding the request to constitute Hyderabad a centre for the examination in type-writing, I have the honour to state that the proposal contained in my letter No. 3076, dated the 16th June 1903, relates only to the first or written part of the examination, and that proper arrangements for the conduct and superintendence of it could be made.

Endorsement No. 489, Educational, dated 7th September 1903.

Referred to the Commissioner for Government Examinations, for remarks, with reference to his letter No. 397/4-D., dated 11th July 1903, and with the request that he will state whether, in case candidates are allowed to undergo the written examination by itself at Hyderabad, they may be permitted to appear for the practical examination at the centre nearest to that place.

(By Order)

A. T. PRINGLE,
Asst. Secretary to Government.

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Commissioner for Government Examinations, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational department, dated 28th September 1903, No. 609/4-D.

In returning the letter from the Resident at Hyderabad, referred to me for remarks in endorsement No. 489, Educational, dated 7th instant, I have the honour to state that the written examination in type-writing may be held at Hyderabad, and that, if satisfactory arrangements cannot be made for the practical test being conducted at the same place, the candidates concerned may undergo this test at the nearest centre where it is conducted. In this connection, I beg to request that the attention of the Resident be invited to article 8 of the notification regulating the technical examinations.

ORDER—No. 487, Educational, dated 6th October 1903.

The Commissioner will accordingly make the necessary arrangements for holding the written examination in type-writing at Hyderabad. The attention of the Honourable the Resident will be invited to article 8 of the notification regulating the technical examinations.

(True Extract.)

A. G. CARDEW,
Ag. Secretary to Government.

To the Commissioner for Government Examinations.

LETTER—No. 483, Educational, dated 6th October 1903, to the Honourable the Resident at Hyderabad.

With reference to your letter No. 4352 of the 25th August last, I am directed to state that His Excellency the Governor in Council has made the necessary arrangements for holding the written examination in type-writing at Hyderabad. For the practical test the candidates concerned should appear at the centre nearest to Hyderabad where it can be conducted. I am to invite attention to article 8 of the notification regulating the technical examinations, which is printed as an annexure, in which the condition is laid down that in such circumstances a native darbar should, besides arranging for proper supervision, bear all the local expenses connected with the examination.

A. G. CARDEW,

Acting Secretary to Government.

ANNEXURE.

Article 8 of notification regulating the Government Technical Examinations.

8. The Commissioner may arrange to hold these examinations in other presidencies and in Native States provided that the Governments and Darbars concerned undertake to bear all local expenses and arrange for the proper supervision of the examinations, and that the fees paid by the candidates are credited to the Madras Government. A list of places at which it is desired to hold the examinations shall be furnished to the Commissioner not less than six months before the date fixed for the examinations.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., Nos. 487, 488, EDUCATIONAL, DATED
6TH OCTOBER 1903.

[SUBJECT.—Type-writing examination.]

From the Honourable the Resident at Hyderabad, No. 3076, dated 16th June 1903.

„ Commissioner for Government Examinations, No. 397/4-D, dated 11th July 1903.

In his letter No. 3076, dated the 16th ultimo, the Honourable the Resident at Hyderabad states that there are two type-writing institutions in Hyderabad which prepare candidates for the Government technical examinations and requests that, as many of the candidates who appear for the examinations are employed in public offices and find it difficult to appear at the examinations even at the nearest centre, Hyderabad may be made a centre for the examinations in question. The Commissioner for Government Examinations whose remarks were invited on this letter states that he has no objection to Hyderabad being made a centre if proper arrangements can be made for the superintendence and for the conduct of the practical examinations. The Honourable the Resident may be informed accordingly. A draft is placed below for approval.

[Letter, No. 344, Educational, dated 20th July 1903.]

From the Honourable the Resident at Hyderabad, No. 4352, dated 25th August 1903.

In reply to letter No. 344, Educational, dated 24th July 1903, the Honourable the Resident at Hyderabad states that the proposals contained in his letter of the 16th June last relates only to the first or written part of the examination and that proper arrangements for the conduct and superintendence of it could be made.

N.L.R.—4-9-03.

The question now is how shall the practical examination be conducted. The candidates will apparently have to attend the nearest centre in the Presidency where the practical examination is held. The Commissioner for Government Examinations may be asked whether this will do and final orders can be passed on receipt of his reply.
