The Chief Engineer, Public Works Department,
Secretary to Government

Sir,

With reference to your Memo: No.

778 C dated 6th February 1903 quoted by the Executive Engineer, Vizagapatam Division, in reply to an item in the disallowance list on his salary bill for May 1903, I beg to state that G. Sinabharanam, a clerk, IV class, 3rd grade (Rs 20-2-30) was granted furlough from 1st December 1902 Afternoon and Shaik Fareed Sahib was appointed to act for him with an acting allowance of Rs 10/- per mensem.

As Shaik Fareed was appointed to act in a post carrying a pay of Rs 20/- per mensem, he is required to have passed one of the examinations detailed in note to article 2 of the Public Service Notification, but he has passed -- only the late Special Upper Primary Examination and sanction to exemption from examination rules appears therefore to be necessary.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the examination rules.

In note (2) to article 1 of the public service notification, the late special upper primary examination has been accepted as equivalent to the primary examination. As Shaikh Farid has passed the special upper primary, he is eligible to hold a post, whether permanent or acting, in the superior service. The remuneration attached to which is less than Rs. 15 per mensem. The Public works department may therefore be informed that the exemption applied for in his case is unnecessary.

Cr^o 9368. Office note from the Examiner P.W. accts. N^o 4061 $\frac{B}{E}$ of 12th Sept 1903.

DW.

With his endorsement N^o 42 v2 of 14th Jan'y 1903, transferred to the Educational Department with this Office
N^o 380 C of 22nd Idem, the Suptg Engr
I Circle submitted an application for the exemption, from the examination rules, of Sheikh Darceel Sahib, for employment as an Acting clerk in the Vizagapatam D^o on Rs 10, per mensem, in place of G. Siniabharanam, Clerk IV class, III Grade, who was granted furlough for one year.

2. The Educational Dept, in its U.O.
note of 26th July 1903, stated that, as Sheikh Darceel had passed the Special Upper Primary Examination, he was eligible to hold a post, whether permanent or acting, in the Superior service, the remuneration attached to which is less than Rs 15, per mensem, and that no exemption was, therefore, necessary. This opinion was communicated to the Deputy Inspr I Circle.

3. In his office note read above, the Examiner, P.W. Account, points out that, as Sheikh Farid was appointed to act in a post carrying a pay of Rs 20 per mensem, exemption from the examination rules appears necessary with reference to the note to Article 2 of the Public Service Notification.

Note for D.W.

With reference to the Educational Draft order below sent to this Dept for acceptance, it is submitted that what the Examiner requires is the exemption of the man from the examination rules and not from passing any particular examination. It may perhaps be suggested to the ~~Examiner~~ that for the words "upper secondary examination" occurring in the draft the words "examination rules" may be substituted.

Educational Deptt.

The term "examination rules" has a wide significance and includes rules about general education and special tests. ~~The Examiner requires exemption~~ ~~from the~~ The Examiner requires ^{the} exemption of Sheikh Farid with a view to his admission to appointments on Rs 15 & above. The upper secondary examination is the test prescribed for this purpose ~~of the man in~~ The Examiner cannot have meant that the man should be exempted from all special tests also.

It is submitted that the P.W.D. may be informed accordingly.

2. ~~By~~ 6/10/03 To give a concrete case - an order made as P.W.D. suggests might render ~~a~~ a man eligible for the post of a deputy collector. It has been thought safer to particularise in these cases: if the P.W.D. should subsequently wish the orders to be made ^{anywhere} wider, this dept. will of course have that done.

Note for Mr.

The case under reference is a specific one. Shaikh Farzed was appointed to act as clerk in IV class, 3rd grade (Rs 20-2-30), the remuneration being Rs 10 per mensem.

2. The Examiner holds that, as the man was appointed to fill a post carrying a pay of over Rs 15 per mensem and classed as 'Superior', he should have qualified himself under Article 2 of the Public Service Regulation (a) should have passed any of the examinations referred to in that article.

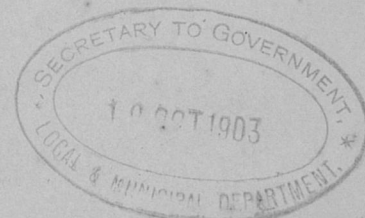

3. The Draft order in the Educational Dept. appears to imply that the upper Secondary examination is the only examination, the passing of which would qualify one to hold an appointment on Rs 15 and upwards. Having in view the specific case under consideration, it does not seem clear whether the expression "examination rules" if used in the Draft would convey the wide interpretation put on it in the Educational Dept. However, if the expression is considered not suitable, perhaps the words "or any other examination or examinations equivalent to it" may be ~~and~~ inserted between the words "examination" and "or" in line 4 of the Draft.

4. If the view presented in this note be approved, it will be only a suggestion to the Educational Dept. and it is open to that Dept. to accept or ignore it.

Does Educational agree with this?

It is submitted that the ~~present~~ draft is quite sufficient to meet the purpose for which it is intended.

If it does not satisfy the Examiner it is open to him to state his objection when if necessary it can be met.

PH 10/10/73 PWD ~~now~~ leaves the matter to Educational the draft may now be issued w9 no harm that I see in inserting the words suggested by P.W.D. & the draft, as altered, may issue.
