I am directed to forward for the favourable consideration of Government letter No. 1722, dated 18th September 1903, from the District Judge of North Arcot, submitting a petition from A. Srinivasa Rao, first class amin in the District Munsif's Court of Arni, praying for a re-consideration of his memorial for exemption from the examination rules (vide G.O. No. 311, Educational, dated 7th June 1901, in which the exemption sought for was refused). I am to say that, though the High Court did not support a similar request from the petitioner on the previous occasion in May 1901, it would now recommend -- exemption of the petitioner for posts carrying a salary of not more than Rs. 40 per mensem, in view of the very strong recommendation of the District Munsif and of the further good service done by the petitioner since the date of his former memorial. The District Munsif writes of him "I have formed a high opinion of his knowledge of English, his legal acumen, strict integrity, and the accuracy he has shown in the discharge of the very onerous duties of execution clerk entrusted to him by me for want of a better man in the establishment * * * * *
He has put in nearly 25 years of good service. * * "

District Judge.

His Excellency the Right Honorable
Lord Arthur Oliver Toller Baron Amfithill Governor of Fort Saint George Madras.

The humble and respectful memorial of
A Srinivasa Rao Process writer of the District
Munsiff's Court Arni, North Arcot District.
Through the District Judge North Arcot.
May it please your Excellency:-

1 your memorialist is a long standing servant of this Court. He has been serving as Copyist and Process writer for over 25 years with the utmost Conscientious fidelity. your memorialist put in a Memorial in extenso to your Excellency in April 1901 for exemption from the examination rules pointing out therein some strong and special grounds. Thereupon the then District Munsiff of Arni, your memorialist's immediate superior being well convinced of his Capability strongly recommended his Case to the District Court, North Arcot in his Official letter dated the 15th April 1901, but to his great misfortune
the Government was not prepared to exempt him from the examination rules.

2 your memorialist humbly begs to submit that his Case for exemption is a strong one deserving of special Consideration, the details of which will be shown further on.

2 your memorialist begs to state that he has taken much trouble all through his life in discharging his duties faithfully and loyally and much more so in performing willingly and satisfactorily

the different and difficult works of this Court than for passing the necessary examinations. From the Copies of testimonials appended to his previous memorial this fact will, beyond doubt, be proved and especially the paper I corroborates it and it may not be out of place for your Memorialist to describe the very wordings thereof for the sake of ready reference for your Excellency's sound judgment. The passage runs thus. — "This (your Memorialist's) long experience and willing and intelligent application to any work that may be assigned to him in the Court would more than compensate a mere pass." Further your Memorialist has been in Charge of the execution work which is a very responsible and difficult work in this Court. He has been doing the said work to the complete satisfaction of his Superior. He has also some attainments in laws and regulations. Thus your Memorialist begs to hope that your Memorialist has made out his Case for exemption. The benign Government has shown mercy in the Case of a Clerk on Rs 15 and an amin on Rs 12 in the District Munsiff's Court Vellore and Tenkasi respectively in this District. In fact, your Memorialist has in every way claims superior to those of them. your Memorialist will have to be in the lower ladder of official life, if your Excellency cannot exercise your mercy on this poor and helpless Memorialist and it would also be a great hardship and discouragement to one like your Memorialist in the public service. Then again, it would be manifest that your Memorialist's Superior formed a very good opinion of him and even tried to promote him to the higher steps, but alas! those who were entertained long after him in the department rose higher than your Memorialist on the mere ground that they have passed some examinations notwithstanding your Memorialist has had otherwise superior claims. Besides this, it is necessary to state that Mr J A Krishnasamy Iyer avargal, one of the former able District Munsiffs of this Court, appointed your Memorialist to act as 2nd Clerk Contingent on the Government exempting him from the examination rules as per paper I overlooking the claims of the passed men, because in his opinion your Memorialist had superior claims. With deep regret your Memorialist begs to lay before your Excellency that your Memorialist's hopes for promotions were blasted, his efforts were in vain and he has been kept down below them in service even though his Superior officers entertained a high opinion of him and his fate was ended like the maxim that the stone which the builder refuses becomes the head stone of the corner.

As your Excellency is the sole protector and the general parent of your Subjects, and as there are several strong reasons in your Memorialist's favor, and as there are none to help him but your Excellency and as there is no other alternative than to seek redress from your noblest hands, your Memorialist highly implores that your excellency would graciously condescend to take his hard and piteful Case into your compassionate consideration and exempt him from the examination rules and afford him protection, after a deep and merciful review of his previous memorial addressed to your Excellency together with the enclosures thereof and the present one simultaneously.

A printed copy of his previous memorial is herewith submitted for your Excellency's kind consideration and favorable orders.

For exercising your royal clemency on this poor and dutiful servant he shall, on all occasions, acknowledge your benevolence with gratitude, and also pray to God for your Excellency's long life and prosperity to the latest period of his existence.

Memorial to His Excellency the Governor
from A. Streenivasa Rao, Amin, Arni Munsiff's Court.

To

ARTHUR OLIVER VELLURS BARON AMPTHILL

GOVERNOR OF FORT SAINT GEORGE

MADRAS.

The humble and respectful memorial of A. Streenivasa Rao, Process writer of the District Munsiff's Court Arni, North Arcot District.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:—

1. Your memorialist belongs to a respectable family.
2. Your memorialist knows English and several vernaculars.
3. Reverend J. W. Conklin appreciating Your memorialist's knowledge in English sent him a letter. A
4. Your excellency's memorialist delivered an English address to Reverend H. N. Cobb D. D., the secretary to the American Mission during his stay here on professional tour from America, who being pleased with it sent him a reply. B
5. Your memorialist was entertained in the District Munsiff's Court of Arni as a copyist in December 1877 as would be shown by. C
6. Your memorialist has acted in different appointments and has been always discharging his duties faithfully and loyally. Mr. B. Verasamiah Garu a late District Munsiff of this Court appreciating Your memorialist's work recommended him to the District court as would appear by. D
7. On the 3rd July 1886 the said Gentleman appointed Your memorialist as Process-writer on Rs. 12 per mensem. Shortly after he again recommended him to the District Court for an appointment on Rs. 14 per mensem pointing out his ability as would appear by. E
8. Mr. Subbier Avergal, his successor, agreeing with the opinion of his predecessors gave Your memorialist a certificate. F
9. From the 3rd para of the High Court's letter dated the 13th September 1889 No. 2234 sent to the District Court North Arcot, it will be seen that "none but really deserving men of good character should be recommended for exemption for Rs. 20 post." Thereupon Mr. Ramachandra Iyer Avergal his successor recommended Your memorialist to the District Court recognising his ability as would be proved by G
10. Mr. K. Ramachandra Iyer Avergal, the said gentlemen favored Your memorialist with a certificate. H
11. On the 14th March 1893 Mr. T. A. Kristnasami Iyer Avergal, a former Dt. Munsiff of Arni, fully convinced of Your memorialist's capability in the office work recommended him to the District court as would appear by. I
12. Again on the 6th January 1894 the said gentleman expressed his opinion to the District Court in writing that Your memorialist's long experience and willing and intelligent application to any work that may be assigned to him in the court more than compensate a mere pass as would be proved by. J

13. Your Excellency's memorialist was directed to do 2nd clerk's work as per proceedings. ... K

14. Again Your memorialist was directed to act as 2nd clerk as per proceedings. ... L

15. From all these papers Your Excellency will know Your memorialist's ability in the office work and his qualifications. He, therefore, submits the Copies thereof for Your Excellency's kind and favorable consideration.

16. By the direction of Mr. K. Ramachandra Iyer avergal, a former District Munsiff of this Court, Your memorialist attended to the execution work on the ground that it was in "a great confusion" and cleared off all the arrears.

17. During the time of Mr. T. A. Krishnasamy Iyer avergal, a late District Munsiff of this Court, Your memorialist took a great deal of trouble in clearing off a considerable arrears in small Cause Branch.

18. By the direction of the said Gentleman Your memorialist brought up the arrears of entering the original suits filed, small cause suits disposed of and execution petitions etc in the registers. In addition to his heavy work of execution process-writing he cleared off, by the direction of his superiors, considerable arrears left by the clerks. Besides this Your memorialist has translated Marattah and Canarese documents and copied Hindustani in certain suits.

19. Thus it may be convinced to Your Excellency's judicious mind that Your memorialist's superiors have been greatly pleased with the earnest conscientious and painstaking manner in which he has performed the different and difficult works of this Court althrough his life. Your memorialist has been solely dependent upon this British Government for nearly $\frac{1}{4}$ of a century with full confidence that he may have a good prospect in the official career for the long and meritorious services rendered by him, but alas! those who were entertained in this court long after Your memorialist had superseded him in obtaining promotions on the mere ground of having passed some examination notwithstanding the fact that Your memorialist has otherwise superior claims. All that Your memorialist could state here is that he is a very unfortunate man in the world. In fact, his labor and efficiency were proved to be a cry in the wilderness and he should have to hold his present appointment, without promotion till his retirement from public service unless Your excellency would be pleased, in the mean-while, to show your tender mercy to him. Your excellency's memorialist himself begs to announce to Your excellency that he is a very poor and helpless man burdened with a large family. His scanty pay of Rs. 20 per mensem is hardly sufficient to support them in these hard-days.

20. It is not out of place for Your memorialist to mention here that no sooner had the philosopher's stone touched an iron than the base metal changed into pure Gold. So also when Your unfortunate memorialist's hard case is presented to Your magnanimous and merciful sight, he will not only have redress from Your noblest hands but also will be relieved from all his difficulties like the mist before the rising Sun.

21. Further the Benign Government has exempted many unpassed men * G. order dated 21st July 1894 No. 524 Educational. Department are bound to submit to Government the public servant's memorial whether they support its prayer or not.

22 Your Excellency being the common father of your people and your memorialist having heard of your Excellency's humane disposition has, with the greatest humility, ventured to lay his unhappy case before your excellency in this manner and implores that considering his long service of over 23 years as copyist and Process writer in this Court, his devotion to the duties entrusted to him, the appreciation of his works by his superiors one and all, the appreciation of his general knowledge of English by the able and independent Reverends etc, his knowledge of the several vernaculars of this Presidency and the consequent want of time to study for the examination and considering also that he is senior among those drawing Rs 20 in the Court, your gracious and merciful Excellency will deign to look, with compassion, on this poor and helpless man and exempt him from the examination rules to entitle him to hold appointment to which no special test is required. In doing so your memorialist will get a small promotion of Rs. 10 within the time of his retirement from public service.

For special interest Your bounty takes, Your memorialist will acknowledge Your benevolence, with gratitude, and also shall pray the everlasting saviour for your long life and prosperity till the latest period of his existence.

He begs to remain

May it please your excellency

Your excellency's

Most obedient and faithful servant.

TESTIMONIALS

Dear Sir,

I am much pleased with the truth you have gathered from the Bible I gave you and the good English in which you have expressed it I hope this truth may take hold of your heart and the hearts of many of your friends. ... A

Yours truly

Mr. Streenevasa Row Arni.

Madanapalle

My dear friend

February 29th 1892.

I have been unable to reply before the kind address handed me by yourself during my late visit to Arni. Believe me that I highly appreciate your expressions of regard and that you rightly estimate the motive which brought me to India at this time. I have long desired to see with my own eyes the people of this land among whom my friends have been living and laboring so long, and for whom also I have been working and praying so long in our own land.

It is a long journey full of labor and weariness. But I have felt well repaid by what I have seen and heard. I am rejoiced to know that so many have received the truth contained in the scriptures, and that there are many who, though they have not fully accepted the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the salvation He came to bring, are yet firm believers in the power and wisdom and goodness of the one only living and true God. My prayer for all such is that they may come also to know Jesus Christ whom he has sent, and acknowledge him as their Lord and saviour. There are many Christians in America who are praying earnestly for this.

I am glad to be able to agree with what you say about the glory of God in Creation, and in the providence which saved Novah, Daniel and other righteous men. Permit me to remind you that the "love" of which you speak so highly and so truly, is his greatest glory, and that he has manifested that love especially in the gift of his son Jesus Christ to be our saviour. And that love pleads with all men, every where, to receive that saviour. "Whosoever will, let him take of the water of life freely". "Behold! now is the accepted time. Now is the day of salvation". Heartily reciprocating your kind expressions, and earnestly praying that you may take and share this great salvation speedily and eternally, I remain ... B

Yours very sincerely

Henry N. Cobb.

Sir,
I mean to give Rs. 14 place to the new Amin, Streenevasa Row taken up from the copyist Department. Seeing that Streenevasa Row was able to do any amount of work in English and Tamil whether it is Process writing, Judgments or Decrees, I wanted to absorb him into the regular Establishment long ago, but he steadily declined several times on the ground that as a copyist he had drawn double or triple the salary of an Amin. At last when Gurusundra Iyer was found unfit by age, I prevailed on him to accept the place. I am of opinion therefore that he richly deserves 14Rs. Especially when the other Amins dread the work of Process writing as a tedious task.

I beg to remain Sir

My predecessors have recommended a good opinion of him, as the copies of certificates annexed by him to his application will show, and I fully endorse every word of what they have recorded. There can be no two opinions as to the efficiency of the applicant. He understands and is able to discharge all the ministerial duties in a Munsiff's Court and brings to bear upon any work that is entrusted to him, an amount of willingness in addition to general intelligence, which is not often to be noticed in the lower clerks of a Court whenever they are asked to do other clerk's duties on occasions. He writes a good hand in English and possess a fair knowledge of that language if we bear in mind the few opportunities he had of learning of it. His poverty seems to have stood in the way of studying in Schools till passing an Examination, and what little he has learnt, he owes to the charity and goodness of the Missionaries.

He has already been exempted from the rules for the 20 Rs. post he holds vide G. O. 210 of 11-3-1890 and I consider him a very fit person for further exemption in view of his promotion and therefore beg to recommend his application to your favorable consideration.

Submitted for favorable consideration.

As I have already strongly recommended his (A. As his long experience and willing and intelligent application to any work that may be assigned to him in the Court, more than compensate a mere pass. I beg again to recommend, his hard case for favorable disposal.

Sir,

In submitting herewith the memorial of A. Sreenivasa Rao, Process writer on Rs. 20 of my court with its enclosures for reconsidering his case for exemption from Examination qualifications in view to his promotion to higher appointments, I have the honour to request that you will be pleased to take a merciful view of his case and recommend him for exemption to the favourable consideration of the Government through the High Court for the following reasons.

2. I fully endorse the opinions expressed of him in the testimonials accompanying his memorial and in my predecessor's letter No. 492, dated the 15th April, 1901. During the short period of one year and a few months I have had occasion to know him, I have formed a high opinion of his knowledge of English, his legal acumen, strict integrity, and the accuracy he has shown in the discharge of the very onerous duties of Execution clerk entrusted to him by me for want of a better man in the Establishment. His handwriting is very neat and legible and his behaviour to his superiors is exemplary. I consider, therefore, his case as an exceptional one which can be safely recommended for the exemption prayed for. He has put in nearly twenty five years of good service (of which 17 years as Process-writer and 8 years as Copyist); and a lift to some higher post just a few years before his retirement will be a just reward for his faithful service and will also serve as an incentive to --- others to always aspire to good and honest work.
