Re.exemption of certain peons of the office from the examination rules in view to their confirmation.

To Under Secretary.

The following peons of this office who were appointed to permanent vacancies on the dates noted against each, are still on probation because they have not qualified themselves by the Primary Examination.

Name of peon	Date of appointment to permanent vacancy.
--------------	---

1. Thatchinamurthi	11-4-01
2. N.K. Ponnuswami Naik	27-1-02

2. Both the men are good peons and have done their work satisfactorily, but there is, it is submitted, little chance of their passing the Primary Examination. It has generally not been found possible, though every attempt is made, to secure suitable passed men for peon's vacancies and unpassed men have in consequence been employed.

3. It is submitted that the Educational Dept. may be moved to permanently exempt the men from the examination rules in view to their confirmation as peons.

Submitted. Mr. Hammich decided this to be done. We find we cannot get passed men for all vacancies. [Moreover the exam has been 1893 or is to be abolished]

Very well. Ask for exemption.
