To

The Secretary to Government,
Educational Department.

With reference to Madras Government Memo No. 545, Edl., dated 7th October 1903, I have the honour to state that as Mr. Thorne does not forfeit his lien on his substantive appointment of Vice-Principal of the Saidapet Agricultural College, during his furlough his appointment cannot be filled up substantively. Vide Article 214, Civil Service Regulations and para 3 of the Government of India letter No. 4536 P- Finl., dated 10th September 1894. If however, Government wish to fill up the appointment substantively or to give to the officer acting the full pay of the appointment, the sanction of the Secretary of State would be necessary as in the case of filling up temporary vacancies in certain professional appointments in the Indian Educational Service. Vide Madras G.O. No. 765, Edl., dated 18th December 1901.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

C. No. 1669 From the Ag. No. 1382 dated 16-10-1903.

SUBJECT.

Mr. Thorne's Successor's Allowance.

The Accountant-General says that as Mr. Thorne does not forfeit his lien on his appointment during furlough that appointment cannot be filled up substantively without the sanction of the Secretary of State.

2. It is submitted that things may be allowed to remain as at present and that if Mr. Thorne's Successor arrives before 10th May 1904 it may then be considered whether Mr. Thorne may not be transferred to some other appointment (on paper) if a suitable one is ~~the~~ permanently vacant ^{time} or whether the Secretary of State may not be asked (through the Govt of India) for sanction as a special case to pay the Successor the full pay of the appointment. If this suggestion is approved the Ag. letter may be simply recorded.
