Copy of letter No. 3240, dated the 8th November 1903, from the District Judge of Godavari, to the Ag. Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Madras:-

With reference to your Ref. on Cur. No. 2070, dated 2-11-1903, communicating to me the order of Government sanctioning the conversion of the Deputy Nazarat at Rajahmundry into a --- Central Nazarat, I have the honour to submit an application from S. Narasimha Rao, a Rs. 40 clerk in my Court, applying for the post of Nazir and to recommend most strongly that Government should be moved to exempt him from passing the Judicial Tests prescribed for that post.

2. I consider this clerk the most eligible candidate for the new appointment of Nazir. He is very hard-working, steady, thoroughly reliable, familiar with the duties of Nazir and most deserving of promotion.

3. One of the testimonials accompanying his application is from myself, and I fully endorse the remarks made as to his character, work and qualifications in the other est--- testimonials.

4. Although, as a rule, I am averse to making such recommendations, I consider that there are special reasons for my -- submitting this case for the favourable consideration of the High Court, both in the interests of the public service and also in recognition of very valuable and faithful services rendered by the applicant.

To

F. H. Hamnett Esquire,

District Judge, Godavari,

R a j a h m u n d r y.

The humble petition of S. Narasimharow, Clerk on Rs 40/ of your Honourable Court.

Most Respected Sir,

Learning that a Central Nazir on Rs 50/ has been sanctioned for your Honourable Court I most respectfully beg that your honour may be graciously pleased to recommend my exemption from the qualifying Judicial Tests and to bestow on me the said appointment.

2. I passed the U.C.S. Examination so long ago as 1873 and have put in a total service of 28 and odd years. During my service I have worked as Bench Clerk in Original Suits and Appeals in the District and Subordinate Judges Courts for -- upwards of 23 years and as Deputy Nazir and Execution Clerk for some years and am thoroughly conversant with the duties of Nazir and Execution matters.

3. I have served under several District and Subordinate Judges and District Munsifs and I beg to submit the testimonials which they have been pleased to grant me.

4. Your honour is aware of the hard work that I have done as Suit and Execution Clerk in the District Court and especially the services I have rendered in connection with the long and intricate Suits of Gopalpur and Nidadavole Estates.

5. I am now 49 years old and at this age and in my -- present circumstances I cannot well attempt to pass the Judicial Tests but I believe that your honour might be aware I am none the less qualified for the post of Central Nazir by the long experience I have gained in the Department and the general knowledge of Procedure and practice I possess.

I beg to remain

Most Respected Sir,

Your most obedient & humble servant,

Rajahmundry,
6--11--1903.

S. Narasimharao
Clerk. En.

Is an industrious and intelligent young man. He writes a fast and neat hand. The Sheristadar has given me a good account of his work and I am glad to find him an obedient and attentive public servant.

11th September 1875.

(Sd). S. Narasimhooloo Naidu,
Subordinate Judge.

He is acquainted with the English language. Writes a very good hand quickly and correctly. He did his work without arrears and also assisted the English Department to which, I think, he is more useful than to the Telugu Department.

4th December 1878.

(Sd). K. Venkatachellam,
Ag. Subordinate Judge.

He is a fast and neat writer in English. He is a quiet and good man.

3rd March 1879.

(Sd). V. Gopaulrao,
Subordinate Judge.

Narasimharow was employed by me in reading the appeal records and he gave me entire satisfaction.

3rd September 1879.

(Sd). Audeppah Cetty,
Subordinate Judge.

Is the best clerk in the whole court. His hand-writing both English and Telugu is good. He is very smart, intelligent, punctual, hardworking and painstaking and thoroughly honest. He is deserving of promotion.

10th April 1880.

(Sd). P. Tirumal Row,
Ag. Subordinate Judge.

S. Narasimharow is an extremely intelligent and well behaved young man. He did his work smartly and to my entire satisfaction. He is unassuming and deserves encouragement and promotion.

11th October 1883.

(Sd). C. Venkobah,
Subordinate Judge.

S. Narasimharow has been 8th clerk of the Subordinate Court, Cocanada during the period of 4 years I presided over it. He is a very intelligent, well behaved and hardworking clerk. He never kept arrears.

26th July 1884.

(Sd). K. Kristnaswamy Row,
Subordinate Judge.

This is to certify that S. Narasimharow Naidu, clerk in the Sub Court at Cocanada was my assistant while I was Sheristadar and Head Clerk in that Court from November 1874 to July 1877 and I then found him to be an intelligent, hardworking trustworthy and useful public servant. He writes both English and Telugu in a neat and quick hand and he is thoroughly acquainted with all ~~the~~ branches of the court work. He deserves promotion.

Bezwada,
10th April 1885.

(Sd). E. Subbarayudu,
District Munsif.

(Sd). T. Ramaswami Iyengar,
Subordinate Judge.

I have found S. Narasimharow to be an intelligent and hardworking young man. I am entirely satisfied with him.

4th June 1887

(Sd). T. Ramaswami Iyengar,
Subordinate Judge.

I have perused the testimonials of characters given to S. Narasimharow Naidu, 3rd clerk of the Sub Court, Cocanada by my predecessors Messrs. Tirumalrow, Venkobachary and Kristnaswami Rao. I endorse every syllable of what they have said of him. He is intelligent, trustworthy and hardworking and deserves further encouragement.

7th July 1889.

(Sd). V. Srinivasacharulu,
Subordinate Judge.

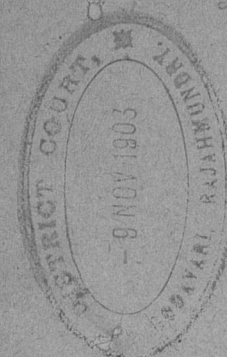

I have perused the certificates given to S. Narasimharow the 3rd clerk of this court by my predecessors. I fully agree with the opinion they have formed of him. I may add that he did his work to my entire satisfaction. He is an intelligent honest, hardworking and unassuming young man and I believe he bears a good character. He goes on promotion to the District Munsif's Court of Amalapur. I am sorry that one of the best and honest clerks of this court is going away though on promotion.

23--9--91.

(Sd). C. Sury,
Subordinate Judge.

Letter from Mr. G. Venkataratnam to the District Munsif of Amalapur dated 18th July 1891.

Allow me to introduce to you Samineni Narasimharow Naidu

a clerk of the Sub Court transferred to your court on promotion. It is with feelings of great regret that myself, the other members of the local bar and the whole Court Establishment part with him from here. I have known him for the last 10 years and I have not known a more intelligent trustworthy and reliable clerk than Narasimharow. I dare say he will endeavour to earn your good will during his stay there.

(Signed) G.Venkataratnam

Narasimharow Naidu has my permission to make this application. He is a man of good conduct and fair abilities and he is very careful in the discharge of his duties. I wish him every success.

26-9-92.

(Signed) P.Lakshminarusu,

District Munsif.

The bearer, S.Narasimharow Naidu, has been my Bench Clerk for upwards of a year. He has always discharged his duties to my entire satisfaction and I have a very high opinion of his conduct and qualifications. He is now going to join the service of the Court of Wards in connection with the Pittapur Zamindary suit. I am really sorry to part with his services but I am glad he is going on promotion, I wish he could be brought back to the Judicial Department in which he has had nearly 19 years service on sufficient promotion. I can say that he was universally liked by the whole of the Court Establishment and by the members of the bar and I sincerely wish him every success.

13-12-92.

(Signed) P.Lakshminarusu,

District Munsif.

Narasimharow Naidu was entertained by me in the Pittapur Suit Establishment when I was in charge of the said suit on behalf of the Court of Wards. He served me for about a year and gave me entire satisfaction in the discharge of his duties. I selected him for this special duty because I was favorably impressed with his character and general abilities when he was employed in the Subordinate Court Cocanada and I have no hesitation in saying that he fully justified my selection.

The applicant as acting Deputy Nazir of my Court has given me every satisfaction.

(Sd). M.Ramayya,
District Munsif.

S.Narasimha Row is one of the most reliable and hard-working clerks in the Court. He does the work of two ordinary clerks Viz, Suit Clerk and Execution Clerk. He deserves ----- exemption from passing the Precis Test for his exceptionally good services and promotion, if an opportunity occurs, to the post of Record Keeper.
