The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

The copying section of my office consists of five clerks, viz., an examiner, a reader, a tabling clerk, and two typewriting clerks, the last two being required to do all the copying work, which is usually heavy. Reviews of inspection reports which have been hitherto issued in print, are now being typed in this office to avoid delay in their issue, only ~~reviews~~ on college reports ^{are} now being printed; and one of the typists has been specially set apart for this and other similar work. It is therefore found quite impracticable to get through the whole of the copying work with a single typewriting and copying clerk notwithstanding the fact that clerks in this section generally work overtime and on holidays. The result is a large accumulation of copying work, more than 200 approved drafts now remaining to be copied. To clear off these arrears and to keep the work in this section well in hand I intend employing immediately with the sanction of Government a few temporary copyists until the pressure ceases and thereafter re-engaging them as necessity arises. I have therefore the honour to request that Government will be pleased to sanction an additional allotment of Rs 140/ under 'temporary establishment' for my office for the current year, the usual budget provision of Rs 360/ having been almost exhausted.

I beg to add that I have provided for a similar additional allotment for temporary establishment under 'Direction' in the budget estimate for the next year recently submitted to Government.

2. The extra expenditure can be met from the saving of about Rs 3,070/ in the allotment for the pay of the Deputy Director.
3. I request the favour of very early orders on this letter.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

E. W. Middlemast

Additional allotment under temporary establishment of the Director's Office

Under rule 93-B of the Budget rules, this department may sanction the reappropriation statement and the financial department concurs in this view. The Accountant General however says that it should be sanctioned by the financial department, but gives no reasons. Should he be asked for his reasons. Perhaps it may be desirable to ask this up.

Rule 93-B referred to in the Secretariat note has been deleted. Please see correction slip pasted on page 17 of the pamphlet of instructions relating to the preparation of Budget Estimates.
Reference is also solicited to G.O. No. 306 Finl, dated 5th November 1903, in which a similar re-appropriation (viz., from the salary of the Registrar, High Court to Temporary Establishment under Criminal Courts) was sanctioned by the Financial Department. This was based on the analogy of Article 282 of the Civil Account Code.

A. G.

The Accountant General's contention is that because rule 93-B has been deleted and because a similar re-appropriation was sanctioned by Financial the sanction in the present case also should be accorded in that department. It is submitted however that rule 93-A is equally applicable. It says that grants made by Govt for a specific purpose shall not be diverted to other purposes without the previous sanction of Govt. It does not say "or Govt in the Financial department".

The precedent quoted by the A.G. is not conclusive. Because Finl sanctioned a similar re-appropriation it does not follow that the Administrative department cannot. Article 282 of the C.A.C. quoted by the A.G. seems to be hardly applicable.

2. The best course to adopt now may be to ask Finl for an authoritative ruling. If its decision is against Educational it may be asked to sanction the present re-appropriation stating: if not Govt can sanction on return of the file.

In spite of the practice which has been adopted hitherto, the Acct Genl has recently questioned the legality of our "reappropriation rules". One of his contentions is that savings accruing under "Salaries" should not be reappropriated for expenditure on other purposes without the sanction of Govt in the Financial dept.

This general question of sanction to reapp. state and of delegations of powers to heads of depts in regard to the transfers of grants is under disposal separately.

2. Meanwhile, sanctions were accorded in some cases by the Financial dept to the reapp. state reported on by the Acct Genl as requiring such a sanction, so that the correspondence with the Acct Genl on the general question might not be unnecessarily swelled.

3. It is for orders whether the Educational dept may be informed that:—

(1) No authoritative ruling can be laid down at present until the question is disposed of finally (i.e. after a rpt to the Govt of India)

In the C. All that the A. J. can do is that the sanction of Govt reaches him through the Financial Dept. He is not concerned with the procedure adopted in the Sect. to obtain that sanction. The general question of the delegations which this Govt has made in regard to re-appropriation is under separate disposal & it will take some time to settle. Meanwhile Mr. may act as suggested above.
