The Secretary to Government,
Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that the sanction of Government may be obtained for the entertainment of a temporary clerk in the office of the Secretary to the Board of Examiners for Teachers' Certificates from November to March in the following circumstances.

2. There are two examinations for General teachers' certificates in the year, one in April and the other in December. The work of checking applications, publishing lists of candidates, checking and publishing lists of results, checking contingent bills and preparing honorarium bills absorbs the attention of the entire staff for two months in the case of the first examination and three months in the case of the second. The examinations for Technical Teachers' certificates held in August and September also provide similar pressing work. Meanwhile the work of preparing teachers' certificates which is done on the results not of the periodical written tests but of the practical tests continued throughout the year by inspecting officers and other members of the Board necessarily comes to a standstill. The issue of certificates is accordingly delayed and great hardship is experienced by successful candidates whose employment as teachers depends in most cases on their ability to produce certificates. A temporary clerk was sanctioned in G.O.No. 437 Educational, dated 31st July 1897 for four months, but the assistance thus afforded is not sufficient and the issue of certificates is in arrears.

3. The results should ordinarily be issued within a month after the results of the practical test have reached the office of the Board and to put things in train for this the services of a temporary clerk for the next four months are required.

I request that in the above circumstances Government will be pleased to sanction the proposal.

4. The Board made a gross profit of Rs 3,000/- last year or about Rs 2,200/- after making deductions for the value of office stationery and printing at the Government Press.

5. The proposed expenditure may be met from the provision under "Honoraria" for Teachers' Certificate Examinations for the current year.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

E. W. Middlemast

For Director of Public Instruction.

1 temporary " " " 10 " " for four months
1 pem " " " 7 " "

The Director now proposes to entertain another temporary clerk for five months - from November to March. It is not clear whether the intention is to keep in the ^{present} temporary clerk for another five months or to employ a separate clerk altogether on the same pay. In the former case no proposition statement is necessary but in the latter case one would be wanted. The Director may perhaps be asked no what the intention is -

PH The Director may, at the same time, be asked if he can supply any figures or other reasons why the work for which a temp clerk is needed has increased & is greater now than formerly.

H. B. Reply No. 63, dated 7th November 1903.

If the proposal is sanctioned it is intended to keep on the present temporary clerk.

It is not stated that there has been any large increase in the work of the office, but that the sanctioned staff has all along been insufficient for the expeditious despatch of business and that arrears have accumulated.

At the present moment the results of the practical and technical examinations for July, August, and September, involving 702 candidates, remain unpublished; and the certificates of the successful candidates, 473 in number, have yet to be issued. The figures for October are not included as the results for that month cannot be said to be in arrears yet.

There has been some increase in the work of the office since the present staff was sanctioned. In 1897-98, 2234 candidates were examined in the written test; this year the no amounts to 2916, an increase of about 30%. The numbers in the other tests remain nearly stationary.
