As no mention of any particular year is made in this revised order, it was held that the students of the Federated Malay States as well as of the Straits Settlements were to be allowed the increased rates from the 1st January 1903, and they have been paid accordingly. Thus student Perera has been paid the increased rate since 1st January 1903. No payment of arrears for 1902 and 1901 has been made to him or to any other Colonial student."

From the D. P. I., No. 116, dated 5th February 1904.

~~A~~ draft is submitted below for approval.

WAS 8/2/04 The statement of the Principal of the medical College that no mention was made in G.O. no 115 dd 11-3-03 of the date from which payments at the increased rates should be made is no doubt literally true but in the letter from the Resident General (no 178 dd 14-2-03) read in the G.O. it was stated that increased payments should be made from the 1st of January ultimo — ie from 1st January 1903.

Dy 8/2/04 Apparently a stupid muddle+. The letter and G.O. of March did not supersede or pretend to supersede the letter and G.O

of January and the payments for 1901 and 1902 ought to have been made and should now be made at once. - The ~~Secty~~ Resident General may be informed that a mistake was made, but that the payments will now be made at once.

POJ 10/2/4

The letter of 4.2.03 was ambiguously phrased (though I think there can be no doubt what was meant) and the Resident General's Secretary might at the time have been asked to explain himself. Even if it was obvious before, it is obvious from this last letter that the arrears were to be paid. I submitted that the students have already been kept sufficiently long out of their money by official blundering and orders may issue. If Lee[y] thinks it necessary to make absolutely certain, should not communication be by telegram?

I undertake to refund the amount out of my own pocket if orders are issued at once and it comes out afterwards that arrears were not meant to be paid.

HG 10.2.4

The letter of 4.2.03 is saved in the letter of 21.2.03 merely to confirm the letter of 7.1.03 - and that was obviously the intention of the letter of 4.2.03

I agree that the Letter of 4 Feb[y] 03 meant that the allowances were to be paid from 1st Jan[y] 1903, & that the arrears were to be given, in the way set out in the L. of 7 Jan[y] 03, but the misunderstanding was wholly caused by the obscurity of the Resid[t] Gen[l]'s Letter.

Sir,

In reply to your letter no. 8881 d/ 16th December 1903, I am directed to state that payment of subsistence allowance to the students of both the Federated Malay States and the Straits Settlements at the higher rates advised in your letter no. 7913 of the 7th January 1903 has been made only from the 1st of January 1903. Mr. Perera has thus drawn his allowance at the increased rate only from 1st January 1903.

In fo. no. 27886 P. 24-1-3

as para. 3 of your Letter H C No. 178 dated 4 Feb[y] 1903 specified "1st January ultimo" as the date fr. wh. the increased payments were to be made.

~~so to all the other students for the year 1901 and 1902 from the 1st~~ ~~January~~ ~~1903~~, however, it appears to be the intention of the Resid[t] Gen[l] that paym[t] at the enhanced rate should be made in arrears from 1st Jan 1901, orders to that effect have now been issued.
