Name age and educational qualifications of the unpassed candidate for whose employment at sanction is sought	The post in which it is proposed to employ him and nature of the appointment, i.e., whether acting or sub, pro tem , or temporary.	The period for which the appointment is expected to last.	The period for which sanction is now sought (with dates of commencement and of termination)	Is this a first application or one for a renewal of a previous sanction? In the latter case quote the previous order granting sanction and state for how long the candidate has been already exempted.	What steps have been taken to procure the services of passed candidate and with what result.	Recommendation of the Head of the department.	REMARKS.
3 M. V. Subba Rao, 33 years old. Has passed the late Middle School examination in the I Class.	"	"	Permanent exemption from passing the Upper Secondary examination to enable him to appear for criminal and other tests.	This is the first application.	The applicant is a clerk in the Dist. Police Office, Godavari, and his prospects are very poor unless he qualifies himself by passing the necessary special tests. The Dist. Supdt. of Police reports that the applicant is a very able clerk. He applied for criminal lower in 1895 when the rules permitted of his doing so, but his transfer to the Police made it impossible for him to attend the examination.	Recommended.

Sir,

C. No. 296 From the I. G. of Police No 605, dated 18-2-1904.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the upper Secondary examination.

The Inspector General of Police applies for the permanent exemption from the upper secondary examination of V. Subba Rao, a clerk in the district police office, Godavari, so that he may be eligible to appear for the criminal and other special tests. It is submitted that exemption from the upper secondary examination does not carry with it the privilege of appearing for the criminal test, ^{either lower or higher.} ~~both higher and lower grades.~~ The tests that an upper secondary man can appear for are: the revenue test, lower grade, the account and translation tests, both lower and higher grades, and the précis writing test.

2. The reasons assigned for the exemption are that Subba Rao is reported by the district Superintendent of police to be an able clerk and that his prospects in the department are very poor unless he qualifies himself by passing the necessary tests. He has passed the late middle school examination and the concession granted to these middle school
