The Secretary to Government,
Educational Department.
(Through the Accountant-General, Madras).

Sir,

W In its order No. 374 Educational, dated 5th July 1901, Government was pleased to sanction, under article 137 (a) of the Civil Account Code, a special advance of Rs 400/- for the three hostels attached to the Teachers' College. A portion of the above amount used to be utilised for the hostel attached to the Panchama Training School when it was a branch of the Teachers' College. As the Panchama school has now been placed under the control of the Inspector of European and Training Schools, I have the honour to request that the sanction of Government may be obtained for the transfer to it, of Rs 50/- from the sum of Rs 400/-.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

E. W. Middlemist

For Director of Public Instruction.

2. There is no objection to the full amount of Rs.400 sanctioned as a special advance to the three hostels mentioned being distributed into two sums of Rs.350 and Rs.50 to be held respectively by the Principal, Teachers' College, Saidapet, and the Inspector of European and Training Schools. The amounts will have to be drawn in January and refunded in December of each year as at present.
