To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit the following arrangement in the Medical College for favour of sanction.

Lieutenant-Colonel W.B. Browning, I.M.S., Professor of Medical Jurisprudence will, without prejudice to his own duties, relieve Lieutenant-Colonel T.H. Pope, I.M.S., Professor of

Ophthalmology on the 1st March 1904, pending the arrival of Major R.E. Elliot, I.M.S., from England.

2. Lieutenant-Colonel Pope's relief on the 1st March has been approved by His Excellency.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A. G. Bowers

Director of Public Instruction.

C. No. 313 From the Director of Public Instruction No 1183, dated 22-2-1904.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

SUBJECT.

Appointment of Lieut: Col: Browning in charge of the Professorship of Ophthalmology.

The Director proposes the appointment of Lieut: Col: W.B. Browning, I.M.S., Professor of Medical Jurisprudence in the Medical College to be in charge of the duties of Professor of Ophthalmology in addition to his own pending the arrival of Major Elliot from England.

The proposal has been approved by His Excellency.

2. Major Elliot has been appointed in the Gazette of the 9th ultimo to succeed Dr. Pope as Superintendent of the Eye Infirmary.

The Director has not yet submitted the corresponding Educational Minute appointing him Professor of Ophthalmology in the Medical College. It is submitted therefore that the first thing to be now done is to get the Minute placed below passed. After it is passed and gazetted an order may issue putting Dr. Browning in charge of the ^(duties of the) Professorship of Ophthalmology until the arrival of Major Elliot. The Director's attention may then be drawn to the omission referred to.

* The Director has submitted a minute since this note was written.
