Forest No. 210 ^{Mis.} dated 9th March 1904.

The Hon'ble Mr. H. A. Sir.

READ endorsement of A. W. Lushington, Esq., Conservator of Forests, Northern Circle R. C. No. 569, dated 29th February 1904, on petition from Sheik Khasim, Ag. Deputy Ranger, Vinukonda Range, Kistna District dated 13th February 1904.

Resolution.

The Board submits to Government the petition addressed to them by one Sheik Kasim Sahib praying for his permanent exemption from passing the First in Arts Examination of the Madras University and the Hand writing and Dictation tests. Sheik Kasim Sahib is an Acting Deputy Ranger, Forest Department and his temporary exemption from passing the Handwriting test was sanctioned in G.O.R. No. 576 educational, dated 10th December 1903.

2. As pointed out by the Conservator in his forwarding endorsement, there is no reason why the petitioner should not try to pass the test required for his confirmation in his present post, and the Board has therefore no recommendation to make on his behalf.

Honoured Sir, I most humbly beg leave to bring the following few lines for your Honor's favourable consideration.

I am a Matriculate of Madras University. My Success in Matriculation appears on 14th page of Fort St. George Gazette dated 15-2-1898. I have passed the Intermediate Examination in Hygiene. I am a Musahmaddan of noble family but in utmost reduced condition.

I am tossed over from District to District in quest of livelihood for the last six years to maintain the members of my family in a decent condition. I was even on plague duty for nearly two years to regain something like our former appearance, where my father was alive but all my efforts amounted to nothing & still we are destined to be in utmost narrow circumstances & I am worse than a beggar on the face of the earth, without any permanent employment in government with a large number of family who had been far better days, though I am bordering on 23rd year.

I am now only an acting Deputy Ranger on Rs 30 per mensem but there is no likelihood of my being ever confirmed as I have not yet passed (1) Handwriting & Dictation Test (2) the Forestry (Intermediate Grade) (3) the Departmental Test. So I most humbly solicit & crave your most gracious Honor to exempt me from passing the F. A. Examination with Handwriting.

I am, Sir, a Musahmaddan

For this act of benevolence, I shall ever pray for your Honor's health, wealth & prosperity.
Copy of the same has been directly submitted.

I beg to remain,
Honoured Sir

Shack Lhasim

Forwarded: there is no reason why he should not be confirmed if he only sticks to his work in earnest. He appears to be, however, a "rolling stone".
