EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 234, EDUCATIONAL, DATED
11TH APRIL 1904.

[SUBJECT.—Special Test Examinations of 1903.]

From A. Subbanarayana Aiyar, dated 27th March 1904.

This letter from a Madura clerk is a semi-private one; but won't it save trouble if an order is passed, once and for all, saying that in the case of any person who has been given special permission to appear for the Special Tests in 1903 and who actually appeared, he may be allowed to appear for one additional year, in view of the results of the examinations held in October 1903 having been cancelled.

A. G. CARDEW—5-4-04.

Submitted that there is no objection to this being done. A draft order is placed below for approval.

P. T. THARYAN—6-4-04.

A. GALLETI—7-4-04.

Thus in many cases special permission was given to appear for Special Tests E.g. G.O., No. 247, dated 27th May 1903. in 1903 and 1904. As the examination in 1903 was, in effect, not held, the candidates affected should be allowed to appear in 1904 and 1905. I think the draft conveys this sufficiently.

A.G.C.—7-4-04.

Are you quite sure that this covers all cases of possible hardship produced by cancelling the examination held? I referred to the possibilities of doing injury when the question of cancelling the examination was under discussion.

If the draft does cover all possible cases, issue it.

J. T[HO]MSON—8-4-04.

The draft is believed to cover all cases with which the Educational department is concerned. But as there may be other classes of cases to which the attention of other departments should be drawn, an addition is proposed to be made to the order.
