The Right Honourable ARTHUR OLIVER VILLIERS
BARON AMPHILL. G. C. I. E.
Governor of Madras.

The Humble Memorial of Pensioned Havildar
Shaik Abdul Kadir.

Most respectfully sheweth,-

That your Excellency's humble Memorialist's son of pensioned Subahdar Syed Roshin of the late 36th Madras Infantry, served in the 50th Madras Infantry, and was present in the siege of Banda and the battle of Chatrakot, during the Great Indian Mutiny of 1857, for services in which, he received a medal and a reward of Rs 500, and that he also served in the 36th Madras Infantry during the last Afghan War in 1880.

2. That your Excellency's humble Memorialist belongs to a respectable family, the members of which, his father, grand-father and uncles, served in the Indian Army with zeal, honour and fidelity and earned the rank of Commissioned Officers and won medals.

3. That your Excellency's humble Memorialist is the father of one A. Mahomed Yousuf.

4. That your Excellency's humble Memorialist's son, the said A. Mahomed Yousuf, who was, on the result of a Competitive Examination, admitted in July 1898, as a Civil Medical Pupil in the Madras Medical College, Hospital Assistant Department and that on the Completion of the first year's study, he was duly promoted and was placed in his second year's course.

5. That your Excellency's humble Memorialist's son, the said A. Mahomed Yousuf was at the beginning of the second year's course of study greatly troubled by an attack of Chronic Catarrhal Ophthalmia and in consequence was granted furlough on the recommendation of the Superintendent Ophthalmic Hospital.

(Encl. 9)

6. That your Excellency's humble Memorialist's son, the said A. Mahomed Yousuf was after the expiration of the furlough allowed to rejoin College on 1st July 1901.

7. That your Excellency's humble Memorialist's son, the said A. Mahomed Yousuf failed to pass the Examination conducted by the College at the end of the College year (1901-02) and was consequently dismissed from that Institution and his stipend stopped.

8. That your Excellency's humble Memorialist's son, A. Mahomed Yousuf, was during that College year greatly troubled in mind on account of certain domestic calamities- the death of his mother, sister and uncle from plague at Tumkur and that his health was bad on account of the eye disease, which troubled him in the previous year, having set in again.

9. That your Excellency's humble Memorialist's son, A. Mahomed Yousuf is in good health now and his eyes are free from the said complaint.

10. That your Excellency's humble Memorialist's son, A. Mahomed Yousuf, made an application on 5th June 1902 to the Principal, Medical College, to readmit him as a private paying pupil and that it was not granted.

11. That a petition was submitted to the Surgeon General, setting out all the circumstances in full, praying to readmit your Excellency's Memorialist's son A. Mahomed Yousuf, as a private and paying pupil in the Medical College.

12. That the said petition was not favourably considered on the ground " that the petitioner failed to adduce, in the application made to the Principal, Medical College, the grounds urged in the petition to the Surgeon General."

That your Excellency's humble Memorialist encloses the whole file of correspondence for your Excellency's perusal.

13. That your Excellency's humble petitioner understands that "a concession, similar to the one ^{now} prayed for, was granted by your Excellency to failed Civil Medical Pupils, Hyder Hussain Hyderi and Kadir Sheriff."

14. That your humble Memorialist prays that your Excellency will be pleased to extend to your Excellency's petitioner's son, A. Mahomed Yousuf a similar concession and grant him permission to renew his connection with Medical studies as a private paying pupil in the Medical School, Rayapuram, so that your Excellency's humble Memorialist's son A. Mahomed Yousuf will be enabled to join an honourable profession, held sacred in the community and greatly respected by all.

For which your humble Memorialist Petitioner ever pray.

1st April 1904.

C. No. 615 From the P. S. G.

No 126, dated 2-4-1904.

SUBJECT.

Permission to join the Hospital Asst. class,
Rayapuram Medl. School, as a private pupil.

The petitioner requests that his son, Muhammad Yusuf - a civil medical pupil dismissed from the Medical College for failure to get through the ⁱⁿ final examination ^{for} Anatomy, Materia Medica, Medicine & Surgery held at the end of the Session ~~the hospital assistant held in 1901-02~~ ^{may} be permitted to join the medical school at Rayapuram as a private (paying) pupil. Under n^o. 5 of the rules in G.O. n^o. 375 256: 5/8th August 1903, "a stipendiary student dismissed for failure at any of the Board examinations may re-join the school as a private (paying) student at the option of the Superintendent." ~~The petitioner may therefore be referred to the Supt. of the Rayapuram medical school. A draft is placed below for approval.~~ but the decision in Muhammad Yusuf's case was arrived at before these rules were sanctioned - i.e. page 8 of the current file. The rules then in force were not quite explicit but the Govt. has declined to interfere with the action of the College Council in ^{*} similar cases and the same course may therefore be now adopted.

A draft is placed below for approval.
