Sir,

I have the honour to state that there are no Typewriting clerks in this office, and that notwithstanding the publication of an advertisement in the Fort St. George Gazette and "The Hindu", I have been unable to secure one who is qualified under the examination rules. One T. L. Narayanaswami Nayudu, employed as an Acting clerk in the Office of the Superintendent of Police, Bellary, has applied for a typist's post. He is also an unpassed man, but will, I think do well if appointed a typist on Rs 25, and I request that Government will be pleased to exempt him altogether from the examination rules and also for one year from the Government Typewriting examination (Elementary).

2. Narayanaswami Nayudu is the son of Bagiah Nayudu, and is the person referred to in G. O. No. 696 (Public) dated 16th July 1902. He holds excellent testimonials from Mr. W. S. Meyer under whom he has worked as typist.

I have the honour to be

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

E. S. M.

C. No. 599 From the Board of Rev. L.R. No 1168 dated 30-3-1904.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the examination rules.

The Collector of Anantapur applies for the permanent exemption from the upper secondary examination and ~~the~~ temporary exemption for one year from the typewriting examination (Elementary) of T.L. Narayanaswami Nayudu ^{with the view of appointing him as} ~~for employment as~~ typewriting clerk in the Collector's office. This Narayanaswami Nayudu is the subject of the petition disposed of in G.O. No. 696 Sub. (military) 5/16th July 1902 and the Government promised to consider the question of the relaxation of the examination rules in his case if any head of a department was willing to employ him. In the circumstances, the exemption applied for may perhaps be granted. A draft is placed below for approval.
