GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., Nos. 65, 66, Educational, dated 27th January 1904.

ABSTRACT.—Addressing the Government of India on the subject of placing Mr. A. Chatterton on special duty for a period of six months while he is on furlough.

READ—also the following paper:—

Telegram from the Government of India, Home department, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational department, dated Simla, 12th April 1904, No. 309, Education.

Your letter 66 of 27th January, Chatterton's deputation. Reference made to [the] Secretary of State. Government [of] India think it desirable that Chatterton should pay special attention [to] weaving schools and, that if possible, before leaving India he should inquire [at] Bombay what steps have been or are being taken in that Presidency towards [the] formation of such schools.

ORDER—No. 239, Educational, dated 13th April 1904.

Communicated to the Director of Public Instruction with reference to his letter No. 8880 of the 8th January last.

2. If Mr. Chatterton is still in India the instructions of the Government of India should be communicated to him immediately for compliance. The Director of Public Instruction will be requested to report whether those instructions reach Mr. Chatterton in time to be carried out before his departure from India.
