SIR,

I have the honour, by direction, to inform you that only 16 applications for admission to the Madras Burma Medical Subordinate Department have till now been received, while the number of vacancies thrown open to competition is twenty five, and I am to suggest that, if you think it necessary, Government be asked to relax the rule which restrict admission to matriculates and to candidates who have passed the compulsory portion of the Upper Secondary Examination.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

your most obedient servant,

E. H. Elliot

Secretary.
