To

The Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to instruct the Collector of Coimbatore to acquire under the Land Acquisition Act the site shown in the accompanying tracings as B and B.1 which has been selected for the Government Girls' School, Karur one of the works recommended to be included in the Public Works budget for 1904-1905.

2. I also request that the Public Works Department may be instructed to prepare the necessary estimate for a Lower Secondary School in accordance with the type design now under preparation by the Consulting Architect to Government. The cost of acquisition estimated at Rs 630/- by the Collector of Coimbatore should be paid by the Public Works Department.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A. R. Bowring

Director of Public Instruction.

Dr.

P.W.D. Sept.

No allotment has been given for this work in the Preliminary issue of the Current year's Budget, and it will probably take some time yet before the type design for Govt girls' schools, ~~which is~~ under preparation by the Consig Archt, is ready and is circulated to the Department. Unless there is any urgency in the matter the acquisition of the site may be deferred till the type design is issued.

P.W.D. 4.04

That the type-design is not ready does not appear to be sufficient reason for deferring the acquisition of the site.
The D.P.D. may, however, be consulted.

I think the site may be acquired - The type design ought to be ready soon but it is in the Consulting Architect's office

The process of acquiring sites is often so lengthy that it will be better ^{not} to delay the acquisition.
We may therefore agree with the D.P.D. & return the file to P.W.D. with a request that the draft may be accepted.

2. The question of ~~allowing~~ ^{allotted} funds for the acquisition of the sites may be considered when the draft notification is received from the Collector.
