To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

In my letter Ref. on C.No. 463/P.'03 dated 15-4-'03 I recommended that V. B. Kunhi Poker sub pro tem Special - Fund Clerk, Wynad Taluk Office be permanently exempted from the Hand-writing and Dictation Test, but in its order No. 184 dated 23-4-'03 the Government exempted him temporarily until the results of the examination of December 1903 were announced. The Government considered that the clerk should make further attempts to pass the examination. He has since appeared for examinations held in May and December 1903 but was unsuccessful on both occasions. The Deputy Collector, Wynad, again recommends that Kunhi Poker may be permanently exempted from the Hand-writing and Dictation Test. For the reasons given in my letter quoted above I beg that the Government will be pleased to grant the exemption.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Collector.

C. No. 668 From the Collector of Malabar No 433, dated 6-4-1904.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the handwriting and dictation test.

In April 1903 the Collector of Malabar recommended that V. B. Kunhi Poker, sub pro tem special fund clerk, Wynaad taluk office, might be permanently exempted from the handwriting and dictation test, but Government considered that he should make attempt to pass the test and accordingly exempted him temporarily until the results of the examination held in Decr: 1903 were announced - Vide G.O. no. 184 Est. of the 23rd April 1903. The Collector now reports that the clerk had appeared for the examinations held in May and Decr: 1903 but failed on both occasions, and again recommends his permanent exemption. Kunhi Poker is a Moplah by caste and has passed the F.A. examination. Orders are solicited.

The exemption may perhaps be now given. This is especially the case if the man will ever pass the test.
