The Secretary to Government,
Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to recommend the exemption of K. Kunhalavi, a moplah peon in the Settlement Office, Malapuram, from the Examination Rules so that he may be given a peon's post in the Revenue Department. He is an unpassed man and has acted for nearly 8 years as peon in the Revenue and Settlement Departments. He is likely to be thrown out of employment this year when the Settlement establishment is dispensed with. The peon is reported to be hardworking and also possesses good testimonials. For the above reasons I beg that the Government will be pleased to sanction his exemption from the Primary Examination. As pointed out in my letter to Government Ref. on G. No. 823/P.'03 dated 2-8-'03 qualified Mahomedan candidates for peon's posts are difficult to find in this District.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

M. V. G. S.
