Sir,

I am directed to forward herewith an application (with its enclosures) addressed to Government by Idupuluri Kameswara Rao, 6th Clerk, District Munsif's Court, Masulipatam, praying that he may be exempted from passing the Upper Secondary Examination and to state that the Honourable the Judges do not support the application.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. T. Greenup
Ag. Registrar.

To

His Excellency the Governor in Council,
Fort Saint George,
MADRAS.

Through The District Munsif, Masulipatam,
" The District Judge, Kistna,
" The Honorable High Court, Madras.

The humble application of I. Kameswara Rao, 6th Clerk
District Munsif's Court, Masulipatam.

Most Respectfully Showeth,

1. That he entered the Government service in 1885, being employed as a clerk on Rs. 15/ at a time when the applicant could rise to Rs. 20/, and has ever since been working on the same pay.

2. That he has put in about 19 years service and has not been able to secure any promotion not having passed the necessary examination which qualifies him for an appointment carrying a pay over Rs. 15/.

3. That in spite of all 19 years hard service he is ^{nothing} rotten in the lower ranks of the service as the examination rules stood in his way.

4. That all these 19 years he has been entrusted with Small Cause suits, original suits and execution pending work, and has in all these branches of work given complete satisfaction to his superiors (the presiding Judges), so much so that many of them have felt that but for the examination bar he should have been given encouragement.

2. 3

5. That he has served under many officers and secured testimonials (copies enclosed), a perusal of which will convince one that the applicant deserves every encouragement.

6. That some of the officers have gone to the length of recording that the applicant should be exempted from the examination rules.

7. That with the recommendation of M.R.Ry., S.Ramaswami Iyer Agerghal, District Munsif of this Court, an application was submitted through the District Judge to the Honorable High Court in 1901 for exemption from examination rules, but to the great misfortune of the applicant, The Honorable the High Court was not pleased to make the recommendation.

8. That as per G.O. No.25, ^{mutl.} 6th January 1904, an additional clerk on Rs.25/ is to be entertained in this Court and all clerks expect promotions except the applicant though he is one of those "very poorly paid clerks on Rs.15/" referred to in the G.O. No.25. 0.

9. That the applicant submits that it is his great misfortune to see that clerks much junior to him get promotion and even the additional appointment with Rs.25/ salary, and find himself thrown in the back ground without any encouragement whatever.

10. That the examination rules prevent his rising from Rs.15/ even to 17½ Rs., and his 19 years service has thus gone for nothing.

11. That regard being had to the nature of the work which is done and is being done by him and to the very favourable words said of him in the testimonials such as "I could not do any thing for him as he is an unpassed man". "He is thoroughly well up in his work and attends to it with a devotion not often met with. I am sorry to say that my efforts to remove the bar proved futile and commend his case to my successors". "He gave me complete satisfaction in the business entrusted". "They are both in the same predicament with regard to examinations and in my opinion deserves to be exempted from the Middle School Examination. Kameswara-Rao (applicant) is also a good writer in English and Telugu and bears an excellent character". "I regret you are not a passed candidate". "I cannot imagine any work which he cannot do quite satisfactorily and as one or two other District Munsifs have remarked the examination rules stand in his way. I felt his case was one in which some relaxations might be allowed. His handwriting is very neat". The applicant humbly submits that his claim for exemption from the examination rules deserves every consideration.

12. That a clerk like the applicant about whom and whose work words such as "There is no exaggeration if I say that you managed the vast execution work of this Court, satisfactorily. A very useful public servant I cannot imagine any work which he cannot do quite satisfactorily". "A useful clerk besides being obedient and hard working". "He had heavy work and yet did it with promptness generally." "His neatness and attention to details have impressed me very much." "I always found him very quiet and obedient. He gave me complete satisfaction in the business entrusted to him". "He is an intelligent and smart and industrious young man", were said by his superiors, should be made to suffer for want of a pass is really hard and that he should be allowed to remain where he was at the outset without any hope for the better all these 19 years is a circumstance which, the applicant submits, deserves merciful and generous consideration.

13. That so far back as 1889, a first grade District Munsif, who was the applicant's superior then, expressed that the applicant should be exempted from examinations.

14. That all these circumstances the applicant respectfully represents, make out good grounds for deliverance from the sad plight in which he is placed.

15. The applicant most submissively prays that His Excellency the Governor in Council, Fort St. George, may be graciously pleased to exempt the applicant from passing the Upper Secondary Examination which has hitherto stood in his way to promotion.

The applicant begs to remain,
Your most obedient and humble servant,

28th March 04
Masulipatam.

S. Kameswarar
clerk.

Mr. R. A. Bhimewara Rao Pantulu Juru
Bd. Bd.

The District Judge, Kistna.

In submitting herewith the Application of J. Kameswara Rao, 1st Clerk of my Court for exemptions from the operation of the examination rules, I beg to state that I have nothing to add to what has already been written by my predecessor, Mr. Ramaswamy Iyer on the subject. (Copy of his letter is enclosed) except that the Applicant deserves all that has been said of him. The Applicant started his life so far back as 1885 with a salary of Rs 15 when he was eligible.

any appointment carrying a salary below

He is still where he was and will probably remain so until the time of his retirement from service, unless some concession is shown by relaxing the said rules in consideration of his long and meritorious services. All the Officers under whom he had served have expressed their willingness and readiness to reward his services by giving him promotions which he deserved if their hands were not bound by the examination rules.

I venture to submit that, in recognition of his proved merit and ability, a slight relaxation may be made by exempting him from the examination rules up to Rs 30 appointment in the Judicial Department, which I dare say, he will not be able to reach until the far end of his service, considering the fact that he has already gone more than half the way towards the pensionable period of Government Service.

3. Now that, under G.O. dated 6 Jan 1904, No. 25 Judicial, an additional Clerk has with a salary of Rs 25 has been sanctioned, I respectfully beg that you be pleased to move the Honourable Judges of the High Court to reconsider their former order, on my predecessor's recommendation, expressing that no special grounds were shown for exemption, and to obtain from Government the proposed concession as the poor clerk, having spent all his energy and vigour in Government Service, will otherwise have very little to live upon in his retired life.

District Munsif's Court, Masulipatan.

Idupuluri Kameswara Rao Pantulu 6th Clerk appointed by the District Judge, has worked under me for nearly 2 years and has charge of Small Cause suits. He is an intelligent smart and industrious young man, and writes a neat hand in both English and Telugu. I can certify that he is a trustworthy man.

Bapatla, 1/5/87.

I. Kameswara Row has been doing Small Cause business during the three months that I was incharge of the Court and I am glad to be able to testify that I always found him very quiet and obedient. He gave me complete satisfaction in the business entrusted to him.

(Signed) V. Subrahmaniyam,
Ag. District Munsif.

Idupuluri Kameswara Row, 7th Clerk, is as efficient and intelligent a clerk as Singaraju Mallikharjana Row. They are both in the same predicament with regard to examinations and in my opinion deserve to be exempted from the Middle School Examination. Kameswara Row is also a good writer in English and Telugu and bears an excellent character.

Dear Kameswara Row Pantulu,

You ask me for a testimonial since you are going away, being transferred to the Masulipatam Munsif's Court. I have no objection to express that during the short time I have been here, I have found you to be a good writer and a useful clerk, besides being obedient and hard-working. I regret you are not a passed candidate, yet I believe you are not inferior to the clerks of your grade in point of usefulness in work.

Yours faithfully,

(Signed) V. Lakshmi Narasimham,
District Munsif.

I. Kameswara Row, 7th Clerk, District Munsif's Court, Masulipatam is a very useful public servant. I cannot imagine any work which he cannot do quite satisfactorily and as one or two other District Munsifs have remarked the examination rules stand in his way. I felt his case was one in which some relaxations might be allowed. His hand writing is very neat and thoroughly legible.

Vizagpatam, 1st June 1896.

My dear Kameswara Row,.

You ask me for a testimonial on the occasion of my transfer from Masulipatam. There is no exaggeration if I say that you managed the vast execution work of the court satisfactorily during my 3½ years charge of the Masulipatam Court. It is a pity that you are an unpassed candidate though you write much better than most passed candidates do and it is the sole reason which debarred your promotion.

Yours faithfully,

District Munsif.

I. Kameswara Row was execution clerk on the Original side all the 38 months I presided over the District Munsif's Court Masulipatam. He had heavy work and yet did it with promptness generally. I tried him at times for taking down depositions and was quite pleased with him. I could not do anything for him as he is an unpassed man.

I.Kameswara Row worked under me for three and a half years nearly during which period he was attending to the onerous and some what heavy duties of a clerk entrusted with Original side execution petitions. He is thoroughly well up in his work and attends to it with a devotion not often met with. His neatness and attention to details have impressed me very much. Examination tests stand in the way of his advancement and I am sorry to add that my efforts to remove the bar proved futile and commend his case to my successors.

Masulipatam.

I.Kameswara Row was doing Original Execution work when I was incharge of this Court.

I found him an intelligent, active, and very well-behaved clerk and I have had no occasion to find fault with him or his work. He is a deserving clerk and I trust that my successor

To

The District Judge

Kristna.

Sir,

In forwarding herewith for your very favourable consideration the accompanying application of I . Kameswara Row, 6th clerk of this Court, praying that he might be exempted from passing the Public Service test, namely, the Upper Secondary Examination, I have the honour to submit the following remarks :---

2. He has put in a service of 16 years 10 of these years he has spent in this court and he has served under me directly for over two years . The certificates accompanying his application show the testimony borne by his superiors to the high efficiency of the work turned out by him. Some of them have regretted that they have been obliged to do nothing to better his prospects because of his being an unpassed man , and one of them has actually stated that he deserved to be exempted from passing the requisite Examination . I have had opportunities of judging of his work for a little over two years and I can, with the greatest confidence, add my sincere testimony to the good work he has been doing. He is doing perhaps the most complicated and difficult work of this Court namely the execution work on the original side. His indefatigable energy and laboriousness have in a very great measure served to keep down to its normal condition the very heavy and exacting work of this court on its execution side. His 16 years of good service, I think, is a sufficient guarantee to shew that he is entitled to have his prayer granted. In his own department he is able to draw up his own drafts and conduct the correspondence correspondence. He writes a beautiful hand in English and Telugu. I think it is but fair that a person with such ^{good} credentials and who is in no way inferior to passed men so far as work in court is concerned should be shown some consideration. I have thought it my duty to recognise his merits and to place them before you in the hope that a deserving official of the applicant's capability may not be left to brood over his examination-blighted prospects.
