Madras, April 22nd, 1904.

SIR,

I have the honour to forward three copies of a pamphlet entitled,

"INDIA'S GREATEST EDUCATIONAL NEED:

The Adequate Recognition of Ethics in her present Transition State."

It is an attempt to show how much may be done in this direction, at a moderate outlay by means of the existing machinery.

Attention is invited to the systematic efforts made in the Punjab to promote Moral Training.

Three specimen copies are also forwarded of a volume entitled,

"MY DUTIES: A JUNIOR MORAL TEXT-BOOK."

The object, as set forth by Lord Curzon, in his last Convocation Address is

"To save the rising generation of India from falling into false paths, and to guide them into right ones."

The importance of the end in view will prove my apology for thus trespassing upon the attention of Government.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

John Murdoch

Christian Literature Society for India.
