G.O., No. 239, Educational, dated 13th April 1904.

ABSTRACT.—Communicating to the Director of Public Instruction, with remarks, telegram from the Government of India stating that Mr. Chatterton should pay special attention to weaving during his deputation.

READ—also the following paper :—

From the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Madras, 20th April 1904, Ref. on C. No. 8880 of 1903.

With reference to G.O., No. 239, Educational, dated 13th instant, I have the honour to inform you that, as Mr. Chatterton gave over charge on the 11th instant and immediately left for England via Colombo, it is not possible for the instructions of the Government of India to be carried out.

ORDER—No. 280, Educational, dated 5th May 1904.

The Director will be informed that the Government of India have made a reference to the Secretary of State on the subject of Mr. Chatterton's special duty while on furlough.

2. The Government of India will be addressed.

(True Extract.)

H. D. TAYLOR,
Ag. Secretary to Government.

To the Director of Public Instruction.

LETTER—No. 281, Educational, dated 5th May 1904, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department.

With reference to your telegram, No. 309 Education, dated the 12th ultimo, on the subject of Mr. Chatterton's deputation on special duty while on furlough, I am directed to state that Mr. Chatterton had already given over charge of his duties and left for England via Colombo prior to receipt of your telegram and that it was consequently not possible to communicate to him the instructions contained in your telegram.

H. D. TAYLOR,
Ag. Secretary to Government.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., Nos. 280, 281, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 5TH MAY 1904.

[SUBJECT.—Mr. Chatterton's Special Duty.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 20th April 1904, No. 8880.

In its telegram, No. 309 Education, dated the 12th of April 1904, the Government of India stated that it thought desirable that while on special duty during furlough Mr. Chatterton should pay special attention to weaving and that, if possible, before leaving India he should make inquiries in Bombay as to what steps had been or were being taken in that Presidency towards the formation of weaving schools. These instructions of the Government of India were communicated to the Director for communication to Mr. Chatterton immediately for compliance and the former was requested to report whether they would reach Mr. Chatterton in time to be carried out before his departure from India—vide G.O., No. 239, Educational, dated 13th April 1904. The Director now says that as Mr. Chatterton gave over charge on the 11th May and immediately left for England it is not possible for the instructions of the Government of India to be carried out. It is submitted that in these circumstances the Government of India may be informed accordingly.

N.L.R.—30-4-04.

The Director should, however, communicate to Mr. Chatterton the substance of the first half of the telegram from the Government of India. Please see the drafts placed below for approval.

P. T. THARYAN—2-5-04.

A. GALLETTI—2-5-04.

As the Honourable Member has separately called for the connected papers, the present file is also submitted for information.

H. D. TAYLOR—3-5-04.

The Government of India evidently desired that Mr. Chatterton should study the subject of weaving schools before going home. I doubt if it would be wise to instruct him now to take up that subject abroad until we know definitely whether the special duty will be sanctioned. If it is not, Mr. Chatterton would immediately make a claim on the ground that he had been instructed. Best now wait for the specific orders of the Government of India, simply informing the Director of Public Instruction that India has referred to Secretary of State. Issue draft as altered.
