To

The Chief Secretary to Government,

Judicial Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that the Government may be pleased to exempt from passing the Primary Examination, Syed Mahmed, acting Attender in the Record Department of this Court, so as to enable him to be appointed to posts carrying a pay of less than Rs 15 per mensem.

2. He was appointed to the inferior post of Court peon on 27th October 1894, after the present public service notification was issued, and before article 1 thereof came into force as regards "inferior posts." Since 1st January 1897 the Primary Examination has been made a compulsory test for such inferior appointments: and the man not having passed it cannot be appointed to the post of Attender above mentioned.

3. Since his appointment in 1894 as dalayet (Court peon) Syed Mahmud has been doing his duties satisfactorily. He is a Mahommaden and bears good character.

4. I have exempted him temporarily for 3 months before appointing him as acting Attender; and, as the permanent incumbent is to retire shortly, I request that Syed Mahmed may be permanently exempted.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Manandaran Ray
District Judge.

C. No. 812 From the Judicial Department No 1818, dated 2-5-1904.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from passing the Primary Examination.

The District Judge of North Arcot requests that one Saigid Mahmud - a dalayet (Court peon) but now an acting attender in the record department of his Court, may be permanently exempted from passing the Primary examination so as to enable him to be appointed to posts carrying pay of less than Rs. 15 per mensem. The only reasons assigned for the recommendation are that he is a mahommaden and bears a good character and that as a dalayet he has been doing his duties satisfactorily. It is submitted that there appears to be no special ground for the exemption applied for. The Dt. Judge does not say that qualified men are not available. The High Court in forwarding the application do not make any recommendation. Orders are solicited.

Why is exemption required in this case? Under notice to the Public Service notification can he not be promoted to the post of attender or "Reference picker" without exemption.

He was a permanent person before 1st January 1897.

Attention is invited to the decision arrived at in G.O. no. 80 Vol. of the 29th January 1904. In that case, as well as in the present, the men held permanent appointments before the 1st of January 1897, i.e., before the primary examination rules in respect of inferior appointments came into force, and both of them were proposed to be appointed in the same service. The present case was therefore similar to the one disposed of in the G.O. above and it was thought, that in view of the decision therein, the question need not be raised in the present case.

Following the decision in G.O. no. 80 Vol. of 29th January 1904 we may grant special exemption in this case. Please see draft placed below for approval.

Under the heading of Note 1, etc. appoint, who was appointed permanent person after 1st July 1894, is not entitled to promotion unless special exemption. I have to see that any special can be given in his behalf. The rule would be secured him with a view to appointing him to a post about to become vacant. I see no reason to grant any special exemption. The question of a general modification of the rules is under consideration. This man, if serving, may benefit by these rules. It is not in his interest. The application is refused.
