GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., Director of Public Instruction, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 11th April 1904, C. No. 3239.

With reference to G.O., R. No. 592, Educational, dated 24th December 1903, granting privilege leave for three months from or after first instant under article 260 of the Civil Service Regulations to Mr. Chatterton and furlough for seven months in continuation thereof, I have the honour to recommend that Mr. James, Professor of Engineering in the College of Engineering, be requested to undertake the duties of the Inspector of Technical Schools during the absence of Mr. Chatterton or until further orders without prejudice to his duties in the College of Engineering, and that he be given an allowance of Rs. 100 out of the allowance now drawn by Mr. Chatterton for extra work under G.O., No. 174, Educational, dated 10th April 1900.

Mr. James could arrange his inspection work so that it may not interfere with his duties in the College. Some of it will be done when the College closes for the summer vacation in May and June and the rest whenever he can find it convenient to do it. When Mr. Chatterton was first entrusted with the work it was in addition to his duties as Professor of Engineering.

ORDER—No. 300, Educational, dated 17th May 1904.

His Excellency the Governor in Council considers that Mr. James should undertake the duties of Inspector of Technical schools without any extra allowance beyond the travelling allowance ordinarily admissible under the Civil Service Regulations, but it will be at Mr. James' discretion to defer making inspections until, at the close of the vacation, he is relieved of a portion of his present duties.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 300, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 17TH MAY 1904.

[SUBJECT.—Inspector of Technical Schools.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, No. 3239, dated 11th April 1904.

Under article 70 of the Civil Service Regulations, the proposal of the Director to grant an allowance of Rs. 100 a month to Mr. James requires the sanction of the Secretary of State.

2. The Director is mistaken in saying that the allowance to Mr. James may be paid out of the allowance* now drawn by Mr. Chatterton. Mr. Chatterton's allowance ceased on the 8th February last when his special duty came to a close. It is true that it has been recommended that his special duty may be extended for a further period of 18 months but as this period is to be exclusive of the time spent by him on leave, no allowance will be available during his (Mr. Chatterton's) absence on leave. Even otherwise the allowance drawn by Mr. Chatterton was a deputation allowance specially granted to him and it cannot be drawn by another without the special sanction of the Secretary of State.

3. Orders are solicited as to whether the Director's proposal may be approved and an application made to the Government of India for sanction to grant an allowance of Rs. 100 to Mr. James.

T. KANAKASUNDARAM PILLAI—13-4-04.

Before Mr. Chatterton went on special duty he was doing the work of inspecting Technical schools without any extra remuneration. It is submitted that Mr. James also should do it in the same way. He will of course get his travelling allowance and will not then be out of pocket. Very little inspection work can be done during the summer vacation of the College. At other times the time spent in inspection work must come out of that required for his duties at the College and at the Victoria hostel.

2. The question however arises whether it will be advisable to put Mr. James on A | this work till the new Professor for whom the Government has just asked the Secretary of State comes out. Mr. James is doing the duties of the Professor of Civil as well as of Mechanical Engineering and can hardly be spared from the College even for short periods.

The future of technical education in the Presidency is now being worked out by Dr. Bourne. Some permanent arrangement will have to be made for this inspection work when a new scheme is adopted.

P. T. THARYAN—14-4-04.

Mr. Chatterton was Professor of Civil and Mechanical † Engineering and inspected Technical schools for nothing. Why should not Mr. James?

A. GALLETTI—16-4-04.

Please put up the papers relating to the new Professor as marked at A above.

H. D. TAYLOR—9-5-04.

Please see G.O., No. 226, Educational, dated 7th April 1904, and the despatch to the Secretary of State, No. 4, Educational, dated 14th April 1904.

P. T. THARYAN—12-5-04.

The new Professor of Civil Engineering is not expected till the first week in July—vide despatch to Secretary of State. Meanwhile Mr. James is not only in charge of the Professorships both of Mechanical and Civil Engineering, but until Mr. Keeling's arrival at the close of the vacation he is also in nominal charge of the College of Engineering. I do not think he can do much inspection during the vacation; when the new Professor arrives for the Civil Engineering branch, Mr. James will be relieved of a great part of his duties and can be deputed to inspect Technical schools without extra remuneration.

2. There seems to be no case for going up to the Secretary of State. Mr. James may inspect the Technical schools as far as possible in the interval, and draw travelling allowance for the same at the usual rates.

H.D.T.—13-5-04.

G. S. F[ORBES]—13-5-04.

The draft placed below is submitted for approval.

P.T.T.—14-5-04.

A. GALLETTI—16-5-04.

It may be somewhat dangerous to insert the latter portion of the draft and there is the possibility that the new Professor of Civil Engineering may not arrive till sometime after the College reopens, hence inspection of technical schools will be indefinitely deferred. I have substituted the words "at the close of the vacation."
