persons in this particular case do not fulfil one of the conditions laid down; only one of them seems to have been "entertained before the Examination Rules came into force" (1894). Should they be specially exempted? If so, for service in the Survey Dept. only or for service in the whole Rev. Dept?

~~The exemption is not for exemption from employment in permanent position discharging the duties of a post but for exemption from employment in a post only.~~

Presumably the latter as general orders dis-applying Ex^m rules from persons are proposed. See H. 25.4

24 B. refers to two points.

(a) the passing of orders similar to those passed in G.O. 268 - removal of temporary persons of the Survey Dept. - to employment subject to certain conditions having been complied with - a permanent post when the temporary employment ceases.

This proposal may be approved?

(b) the exemption of ~~the~~ applied for in the case of the 17 persons specifically named in 3. I take it, meant for their exemption from ~~and temporary~~ employment.

as theoretical persons in the permanent staff. They do not conform to the conditions requisite for general exemption for service in the Revenue Dept. unless except in one case. The special sanction may be granted. The men are likely to be specially useful as theoretical persons.
