kind consideration, & favourable words.

I have put in a service of full the Accounts Branch of the Collector's office during which period I have had occasions to gain experience in the several of the important branches of the work in the Account Department Such as Deposits, D. P. W. In. P. & For

for the present I am working as the Birth & Death, Registration accountant.
My salary throughout my service has been Rs 15. Under the old rules I was entertained into the service on Rs 15. The current examination rule is a bar against my promotion in as much as I am an unpassed candidate.
The meagre pay I am given by the Govt. is not at all sufficient to support a family of 9 also depending on me.
I belong to a ~~very~~ respectable family.
My father was a Hindustani & Telugu friendly to all the European officers whether of the I. C. S. or of other Dept^s who were posted to this District from 1850 to 1893. The late Honorable Mr.

3. Under the circumstances above Submitted I respectfully request that I may be recommended to the benevolent Government to kindly exempt me from the examination rules so that I may qualify for promotions at least in the accounts branch of which I have a varied experience.
