Submitted for favourable consideration.

2. A substitute may be immediately employed under art. 262 note 1 of the C.S.R.; otherwise the work will suffer. One C. Seshadri Aiyangar acted for N. Lakshmana Rao when the latter was on leave in March; he knows the work and if his services are available he may be put in, in preference to any other candidate quite new to the work.

3. Kuppuswami Mudaliyar has been absent since Saturday last.

This is most unsatisfactory. Who was looking after the Cashkeeper's duties at the time and what is his explanation? (1)

Two of these relate to periods after the 6th.

Why? Why ~~[illegible]~~ were they not filed? (2)

(1) Previous papers about Kuppuswami Mudaliyar's leave. Papers about his leave in 1902 are not forthcoming. Kuppuswami Mudaliyar has taken seven days casual leave up to the 6th instant – all on account of ill-health. Four of his applications for casual leave are sent herewith; the remaining three have been destroyed.

2. I knew nothing about Seshadri Aiyangar's appointment in the L & M deptt. I now learn that he is not in Madras & that he left Madras before he was appointed to act in the L & M deptt.

3. Under the orders of F.A. one T.S. Anantanarayanan has been selected to act for Kuppuswami Mudaliyar & he has entered on his duties this day.

Note for the Second assistant

With reference to the Explanation required of the Cash-Keeper in connection with the missing Leave application of Kuppuswami Mudaliyar in August 1903. I beg to submit that I was discharging the duties of Cash-Keeper at the time; but as I was working in the Ooty Establishment: I was not wholly performing the duties; and especially after a change of hand I beg to say I am unable at this distance of time how the papers which should have been sent down to Madras in the usual course is at present missing. The Ooty and Madras Lists will bear out my statement but they have been unfortunately destroyed.
