GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., Nos. 394, 395, Educational, dated 28th June 1904.

ABSTRACT.—Directing that, for the future, the age limit of Military candidates for admission to the College of Engineering, Madras, shall be raised from 25 to 28 years, and requesting the Major-General Commanding the Forces to arrange for the necessary alteration being made in paragraph 403 (1) of Vol. II, Part A, of the Army Regulations, India.

READ—also the following paper:—

From the Deputy Adjutant-General, Madras Command, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Ootacamund, 4th July 1904, No. 8215-A (Special and Miscellaneous).

With reference to your letter No. 395, Educational, dated 28th June 1904, I have the honour to inform you, that as a revised edition of Volume II, Army Regulations, India, comes into effect from 1st September next, in which the rules of the College of Engineering, Madras, are not published, no action will be necessary on your letter under reply.

2. A copy of paragraph 956 of this edition, regarding the College of Engineering, Madras, is attached for your information.

ENCLOSURE.

Thomason and Madras Engineering Colleges.

956. A limited number of British and Native non-commissioned officers and men are trained at the Thomason College, Roorkee, and the College of Engineering, Madras, for employment in the Municipal Workshops and Public Works Department. For particulars regarding the necessary qualifications, entrance examination, course of study, travelling and other allowances while under training, application should be made to the Principals of the Colleges. While at the colleges the men will be on duty, and borne on the strength of their regiments (as supernumeraries after three months), and the non-commissioned officers may, if otherwise fit, be promoted as supernumeraries with the men next below them. Staff sergeants must first resign their appointments.

ORDER—No. 410, Educational, dated 4th July 1904.
