The Secretary to Government,

M A D R A S.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that Government may be pleased to exempt, from the operation of the examination rules, one Ramudu, who is a masalchi on R.6 in my office, and to whom I have, subject to the approval of Government, given the appointment of a delayat on R.7 in my office. I make this application because Ramudu has not passed the primary examination, which,-- under the rules, is necessary to qualify him for a peonship.

2. Knowing as I do how unwilling Government ordinarily is to create an inconvenient precedent, I make my recommendation -- with no small hesitation. I, however, venture to solicit the sanction of Government to my proposal for the following reasons:

(a) the man Ramudu entered Government service as a masalchi in 1872, long before an examination qualification was ----- thought of for a peonship:

(b) he has put in over 30 years of approved service: his character is reported to be very good, and the man is quite --- healthy and strong:

(c) the man is only 51 years old, and in the ordinary, -- course he will have probably to put in another 9 years service-- before he gets his pension. The promotion that I recommend of one rupee per mensem to his pay is a great thing to a man of -- Ramudu's position, and it seems to me that it will be hard if -- this man should have to serve out his whole term on the pay on -- which he first entered:

(d) Government is no doubt aware how backward the kurnool

district is in point of education: almost every month the -- Collector has to go up to the Board for temporary exemptions in regard to clerkships, and I find that Government has also on previous occasions granted permanent exemptions both in -- regard to clerks as well as to peons on account of the paucity of qualified men. As a matter of fact, in the case of the -- peonship given by me to Ramudu, should Government not grant -- the exemption, I shall have to keep the appointment open for an indefinite length of time as no passed man has yet applied.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Bejapur Palacuan

Acting Collector.

C. No. 1163 From the Collector of Karnool No 1090, dated 29-6-1904.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the examination rules.

Orders are solicited as to whether the exemption applied for should be granted.
2. The order exempting persons from the operation of the examination rules is still in the Press and the draft of the changes in the Public Service Notification, submitted by the C. G. E., is gone to the departments of the Secretariat for remarks. After these changes are notified Ramudu will not require any exemption. Perhaps the Collector may wait till then & meanwhile exemption may be refused as in the case of the Masalchi of the Deputy Tahsildar's office, Arni, disposed of in G.O. No 361 Vol I dt 10th June 1904.

or else:
That the man may be provisionally appointed pending the issue of further orders.

The Coll^d may be informed that changes in the rules which will probably effect this case are contemplated and that meanwhile Ramudu may be temporarily appointed? - there is no object in making a secret of the orders.
