To
The Chief Secretary to Government,
Judicial Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit, for the favourable consideration of Government, a recommendation for the exemption of the four undermentioned officers from the operation of the Examination Rules so far as their service in the Jail Department is concerned.

Pay Rs 15 - page 3 imp
(1) T. Anguswami - First Grade Head Warder, Central Jail, Trichinopoly.

(2) Perianma Pillai - First Grade Head Warder, Central Jail, Salem, (Ag. Third Grade Assistant Jailor).

Rs 15 ?
(3) Nather Khan - First Grade Head Warder, District Jail, Madura.

Pay Rs 20 - page 11

(4) B. D'Sylva - Acting Assistant Chief Warder, Central Jail, Cannanore.

2. T. Anguswami (the son of a Jail Manufactory Clerk and Storekeeper who did good service in his time), was entertained as a temporary warder in 1887 and brought on the permanent strength in 1890 - that is, before the Educational Rules were made applicable to the Jail Department. Being a very steady careful and reliable officer he rose to be a first grade Head Warder in 1898 which appointment he has held ever since. On several occasions he acted as Assistant Chief Warder and, recently, in an emergency he was put in charge of the duties of the Deputy Jailor for a short time and was found to be very accurate in keeping the books and thoroughly trustworthy. This officer has also worked in the Jailor's Office where he has has proved himself very useful in connection with the daily routine. He is considered to be a very efficient and promising officer and fully deserving of promotion. Being unpassed, he cannot be advanced in the service without being exempted from the Examination Rules. His case is analagous to that of M. Narayanaswami Pillai (referred to in paragraph 2 of my letter No. 1556, dated 26th March 1902) whose exemption was sanctioned in G.O., No. 206, Educational, dated 9th April 1902. His record is a very good one and he is, therefore, recommended for a similar concession as a special case.

3 2 Perianma Pillai was entertained as a third class warder in 7th October 1892. He too is considered a smart and useful executive officer. He was appointed to act as Assistant Chief Warder, Salem Central Jail, from 8th July 1898, to 7th September 1898, and from 17th April 1900 to 28th May 1900. He was appointed to act as third grade Assistant Jailor from 26th April 1902 in which appointment he is still acting. No allowances are admissible under the rules the officer being unpassed and his pay as First Grade Head Warder being Rs. 15. Local passed candidates are not always available or are too inexperienced to be useful. Owing to the absence of the permanent Jailor on furlough on medical certificate - from 1902 and to the progress of large building operations in the Jail, the Superintendent preferred making local arrangements for the conduct of work to bringing in new men. The Jailor has submitted his papers for pension and shortly permanent arrangements will have to be made. Perianma Pillai has given satisfaction and has been recommended by the Superintendent for exemption from the Examination Rules with a view to his being given the permanent appointment in which he has been acting for more than two years without any extra remuneration. I fully endorse the recommendation and in the circumstances would request that his be considered a special case also.

4. Nather Khan was entertained in the Jail Department in in June 1898. He appeared for the Matriculation Examination having studied up to that standard but failed. He passed the late Middle School Examination in the Second Class. On several occasions he acted as Executive Assistant Jailor in which capacity he gave complete satisfaction, having done good work in the Ration and Manufactory Departments. He is reported to be intelligent and hardworking and deserving of advancement. Considering that he belongs to a backward community I trust that the Government will be pleased to treat this case as an exceptional one.

5. The case of B. D'Sylva also deserves special consideration. In October 1903, Mr. Gadsden, while officiating as Inspector-General, appointed B. D'Sylva—who belongs to the West Coast—to be Assistant Chief Warder, sub protom, and posted him to the Central Jail, Rajahmundry, as the Superintendent of that Jail had no suitable man to fill the vacancy locally. It is requested that his exemption may be sanctioned with effect from 22nd October 1903 as by an oversight full pay has been drawn for him from that date. He is considered to be a good officer and has been recommended for confirmation and for promotion in the Department.

Rs 20.

6. As already stated in paragraph 4 of my letter No. 1556, of the 26th March 1902, I should not trouble Government with these special recommendations were it possible for me to recognize and reward departmentally officers of conspicuous merit and proved service. I am, therefore, constrained to beg that the Government will be pleased to sanction the exemption of the four officers abovementioned from the operation of the Educational Rules in view of the special circumstances explained above.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. H. H. H.

Lieut.-Col., I.M.S.,

Inspector-General of Prisons.
