FURTHER PAPERS.

To

The Secretary to Government,

Revenue Department.

Sir,

In continuation of my letter dated 23rd November 1902, Ref. No. 2050/P.'02, disposed of in G.O. Educational Department, No. 39 dated 27th January 1903, I have the honour to make the following further recommendation on behalf of my Vernacular Head Clerk, K. Bhima Rao, referred to therein and request that Government will be pleased to sanction it as a special case.

2. Government are aware of the special circumstances - under which I took him as my Vernacular Head Clerk from the Trichinopoly District. Owing to want of hands in the Collectorate competent to deal with settlement, jamabundi or revenue matters or with the work connected with the introduction of the special village and Taluk accounts for Malabar, he has been doing all the work connected with these matters himself quite single handed. In fact I have tried him in all branches of the Revenue work of the District and found him quite competent and useful in every way. He has attended to the jamabundi work of almost every taluk in the District and has acquired a good knowledge of the revenue system of the District. He has put in a total service of over 16 years in the Revenue Department and has been Revenue Inspector for 5 years and thus possesses a satisfactory knowledge of all outdoor revenue work. He has also been magisterial clerk to to the Tahsildar 2nd class Magistrate and Deputy Magistrate for nearly three years. He is 40 years old.

3. The special work for which he was brought down is almost over. All the taluks in the District have been settled. The Village Manual is nearly ready and will be printed shortly. And the only special work the clerk has to do is the compilation of the Taluk Manual. As soon as this is over, I wish to give him a substantial promotion in the executive line in consideration of the specially hard and good work he has done in this District. But I cannot do so as he has not passed the Criminal test, Higher or Lower Grade. Being a matriculate he is barred from appearing for either of these tests. Nor do I think that he should have to trouble himself with studying for these examinations after continued hard work for over 3 years and at his age.

4. In these circumstances I beg to recommend very strongly that Government may be pleased to sanction his exemption from passing the Criminal Test, Higher Grade and so make him eligible for promotion up to and including the post of Tahsildar. From what I know of him personally I venture to certify that his promotion will be in the interest of the service and that the exemption sought for is well deserved.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

K.A.S.

Collector.

C. No. 1180-A From the Revenue Department No 1026, dated 5-7-1904.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the Criminal test, higher grade.

K. In their proceedings n. 29 est. 27th January 1903, the Govt. sanctioned the exemption from the Translation test in Malayalam of H. Bhunia Rao in view to his being confirmed as Vernacular Head Clerk in the office of the Collector of Malabar. The Colr. now reports that the special work connected with the settlement in Malabar, for which Bhunia Rao was brought down from Trichinopoly, is almost over and that, in consideration of the hard and good work the Clerk has done, he wishes to give him a substantial promotion in the executive line, and therefore recommends strongly that Bhunia Rao may be exempted, as a special case, from passing the Criminal test, higher grade, so as to make him eligible for promotion up to and including the post of Tahsildar. He is only a matriculate and cannot therefore now appear for the test. He has passed the Revenue and Account tests, lower grade, and the Precise writing test, and has put in a total service of 16 years in the Revenue Department. The Collector adds that that the clerk's promotion is in the interest of the service and that the exemption sought for is well deserved. Orders are solicited as to whether in the circumstances the exemption should be granted.

Vide note (2), Art. 4 of the Spl. test noty. J

The tests prescribed for the post of Tahsildar, Deputy Tahsildar, Stationary Magistrate or Town Submagistrate are

- (1) Precise writing test
- (2) Revenue test, lower
- (3) Account test, lower
- (4) Criminal Judicial test, lower
- (5) Translation test, lower

Of these Bhima Rao has passed (1) (2) (3) & he has therefore yet to pass or to be exempted from (4) (5). The Collector recommends his exemption from Criminal, higher & that only. This true he was exempted from (5) in G.O. no 39 Dtd 27-1-03 but that was only a conditional exemption for the post of Vernacular Head Clerk. Orders are solicited. For the post of Magistrate the Criminal test would seem to be the most important; but he has been a magisterial clerk for three years and so must know his codes. Secy H.A. 7/14

Then shd he not be able to pass?

Dr. Pulver's proposal may be accepted as a special case. It is based purely on personal grounds and experience of the K. Bhima Rao's past work

He has not passed even lower Criminal test! I don't see how he can be exempted seeing that it is important a portion of his duties will be criminal if he becomes, as doubtless he aims at becoming, a Magistrate. But if he passes by lower Crim. he may be exempted from Higher. With his experience as a mag. clerk, if he is really competent to decide issues, he shd pass easily. If not to it I don't see safe to entrust him with mag. powers
