 by the High Court in their
 No. 48 dated 12.1.04.

C. No. 1274, From the High Court No 1530, Dated 19-7-1904.

Subject. Exemption from the examination rules.

J. V. Chelapathi Rao, sub pro tem 9th Clerk on the establishment of the Additional Sub Judge's Court of Godavari has already been exempted for three months by the District Judge and for eight months - from the 1st of November 1903 to the 30th of June 1904 - by Government. vide letter No 2 of 6th January 1904.
His further exemption for 10 months - from the 1st of July 1904 to the 30th of April 1905 - is now requested.
It is stated that 6 of the Clerks employed in the ^{Sub} Court have had to be sent away for want of knowledge of Telugu, that no suitable men are to be had and that Chelapathi Rao possesses experience as a Small Cause & execution Bench Clerk. From the Sub Judge's application and the District Judge's letter forwarding the same it would seem ~~that~~ as if the exemption will not stop on the 30th April 1905. In these circumstances orders are solicited whether the High Court should not be informed that further exemption will not be granted.
If not the question of permanently exempting the man will have to be considered but it is submitted that in spite of all that the ~~Sub~~ Sub Judge says it is hard to believe that qualified men cannot be had.

Here can be no difficulty in getting Clerks knowing Telugu & aware of the law.

I do not believe it,
and would not grant
the exemption beyond 30th Sept.

It is absurd to say that a sub pro tem 9th clerk can't be found with the qualifications. Say that

2. If it is ^{considered} decided that no further exemption should be granted the draft placed below may issue.
23/7/4
no exemption beyond 30 Sept can be allowed 8/7-27/7
