C. No. 1250 From the S.S. of Police

No 2757, dated 15-7-1904.

SUBJECT.

Permanent exemption of S. Chelapati Rao from the account test, higher grade.

For orders as to whether the S.S.'s recommendation that S. Chelapati Rao, accountant of the office of the Supdt. of Police, Cuddapah, maybe permanently exempted from passing the account test, higher grade, may be accepted. The applicant was hitherto in the executive line but was, under the orders of Jt., transferred to the ministerial branch. The main reason urged in his favour is that he is too old to be expected to pass the examination.

MR S. Chelapati Rao was an inspector of Police in Vizianagaram on Rs 70 + horse allowance Rs 15 when he was ordered to be transferred to the post of Accountant on Rs 70 or Rs 60. The transfer was recommended by the S.S. of Police owing to the man's incompetency for executive work but this incompetency appears to have been due not to laziness or want of will on his part but to his unsuitability for executive duties. ~~He was proposed to appear~~ He has now been appointed an Accountant on Rs 60 in Cuddapah. He has passed the Account test, lower. Under the circumstances his exemption may perhaps be sanctioned with the concurrence of Judicial.
