The Chief Secretary to Government,

Judicial Department.

Sir,

In G.O., No. 382-Mis., dated 21st June 1904, Educational Department, communicated under Judicial Endorsement No. 2486, dated 22nd June 1904, the Government was pleased to exempt certain persons from the operation of the examination rules for employment in the Jail Department. I have now the honour to request that the Government will be pleased to sanction the exemption of Mr. Henry William Marshall from the Examination Rules for employment in the Jail Department, in the circumstances explained below.

2. Of those referred to in the list submitted with my letter No. 4167, dated 14th June 1904, showing the full strength of the Warder Establishment of the Penitentiary, Pensioned Sergeant Hipwood, a qualified candidate, finding the Jail duties too irksome for him begged that his resignation might be accepted. W. Cooke, who was temporarily exempted from the Handwriting and Dictation Test, has also tendered his resignation to take up an appointment in the Railway on better pay while A.C. Wilshaw (another qualified candidate and an ex-military man) has applied for permission to leave the Department with a view to obtaining a better appointment in the Salt and Abkari Department. The resignation of the two former men has been accepted and in their places Messrs. Lynsdale and Ulyett have been entertained. It is proposed to appoint Mr. H. W. Marshall, a young man of very respectable parentage and of fair education to fill

C. No. 1312 From the Judicial Department No 2950, dated 26-7-1904.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the examination rules

The J. G. of Prisons reports that, of the persons who were exempted from the examination rules in L.O. No. 382351 of 21st June 1904, two have resigned their appointments and one has applied for permission to leave the department and that the places of the former have been supplied by numbers 20 and 21 in the list filed with the L.O. To fill the 3rd vacancy, it is now proposed to appoint an unpassed man, Mr. H. W. Marshall, a young man of very respectable parentage and of fair Education, and the J. G. therefore requests that, as no qualified candidates are available at present, his nominee may be permanently exempted from the examination rules. Submitted that sufficient grounds have not been adduced for the exemption applied for. Temporary exemption for a certain period is all that seems to be necessary in the case and the J. G. may be called on to find out a properly qualified man in the meantime.
