Read the following paper:—

From the Editor and Proprietor of the "Tamil Zenana Magazine", No. 34, dated the 25th June 1904:—

I request you will kindly favour me with a copy of Report on education by the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, and some important educational papers issued by the local Government often.

In this connection I beg to inform you that I am editing the Tamil Zenana Magazine solely devoted to Female Education since 1899 and as such those above mentioned books and papers will be very useful to me to show the public the advancement of Female Education in each district and in each community.

ORDER:— R. No. 110, dated the 6th July 1904.

The application read above will be transferred to the Educational department for disposal.

C. No. 1209 From the File: (Books) Dept. No. 110, dated 6-7-1904.

SUBJECT.

Supply of report on Public Instruction & other Ed. papers to the Tamil Zenana magazine, madras

The Editor of the Tamil Zenana Magazine, madras, requests that he may be supplied with a copy of the report on Public Instruction and some important Educational papers issued by Govt. It is submitted that the late portion of the request is not very clear. What he wants apparently is papers relating to female Education which are placed on the Editors' Table. But before orders are passed on this perhaps the Director may be asked to report the status of the journal and to state whether the Editor's request should be complied with.
