Sir,

Mellone 31-7-04

The Private Secretary 3

To His Excellency The Governor of Madras Coimbatore.

Sir,

I beg most respectfully to represent the following for your kind and favourable consideration. Having served Government most faithfully for 43 years I retired as a Telegraph Master and am now in receipt of a pension of Rs 75. This pension is hardly sufficient for my family which consists of 5 members. I am an European and on account of my good character and faithful service I was granted an extension of 2 years. With this preamble, I now come to the subject of this communication.

I have two sons, one of them is old enough for service, and as I spent all my life in the Government service it is my desire to secure for him a post in that service, but the present rules of Government as regards educational qualifications stands a bar in the way of my son entering the Government service, as he is an unpassed Candidate. It may be asked why I had failed to give my son the education necessary.

necessary for him to secure a pass in the first examination, to this I most respectfully beg to reply that while in service and being in the Telegraph Dept. my transfers were rather frequent and sometimes to places which had no school for European children prevented me from doing the needful for the boy. I have however hopes that you will always help the children of Europeans who are thus debarred by posting or securing for them the necessary exemption. if that is done, my son can be entertained in the Salt Department as a Sub Inspector which is the last grade in the line of inspectors, and which carries with it Rs 50/- per mensem and working his way up as he is fairly educated. I therefore most respectfully and humbly request that you will be pleased to favourably consider my sons case and grant him the necessary exemption.

I beg to remain

Sir

Your most obedient servant

J. J. J.

Retired Telegraph Master.

Vellore
