The Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that when Madanapalle was infected with plague, all the inhabitants evacuated the place and no one could be got to act as peon. Savanth Ranoji, who is of Mahratta caste and is aged 28 was an exception. He came forward to work and did his duty well, behaved satisfactorily and showed that he was not a coward. He has since then been an acting peon and he now requests to be confirmed as a peon. He has not passed the Primary School Examination and is therefore not eligible for a peon's appointment. The Sub Collector recommends his permanent exemption from the examination rules in view to his appointment as permanent peon. As it is desirable to encourage men who willingly offered their services at a critical time, I beg to support the Sub Collector's recommendation and request that Government will be pleased to permanently exempt Ranoji from the Primary School Examination. Ranoji's application is herewith submitted. The Board of Revenue will be addressed on receipt of Government sanction, for his exemption from the age-bar limit.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. S. S. S.
Collector.

The Sub Magistrate
Madanapalle

The humble application of Ranoji Peon Sub Magistrate's Office, Madanapalle.
Most humbly sheweth.
This true that

For the last three months i.e. when this place, Plague was severely working, the applicant worked as an acting Peon in the Sub Magistrate's Office, and is discharging his duties to the entire satisfaction of his Superior Officers. He has worked hard when Plague was very severely working. As for the applicant's hard work and good behaviour he leaves it to his Superior Officers for remarks.

He now hears that there are permanent Peon's Vacancies in Vajalpa Taluk Office. He therefore prays that your unpassed honor will be gracious enough to confer on him a vacant Peon's Post.

For which act of kindness, he shall ever pray your honor.

Dated 28.5.04 Begs to remain,
Honored Sir,
Your honor's most obedient Servant
