G.O., No. 515, 17th August 1904.

JGUST.

Reformatory School, Chingleput.

Approving the suggestion of the Director of Public Instruction that the earnings of a pupil of the — transferred to a jail for offences committed in the Reformatory should be transferred to the Superintendent of the Jail, and requesting him to submit a draft of the consequent alteration in the rules relating to the constitution and working of the school.

August 1904.

Director of Public Instruction,
Educational Department, dated Madras, 18667.

Reformatory School rules sanctioned in G.O., number 1898, the gratuity payable to a discharged
Magistrate of the district in which the pupil's parents
The Magistrate shall deliver it to the boy when handing over to his relatives. The rules do not, however, provide for the disposal of the earnings of Reformatory pupils when they are removed from the Reformatory school on being sentenced to a term of imprisonment for serious offences committed while in the Reformatory. A case in point having now been brought to my notice, I have the honour to request the favour of orders on the subject. The Superintendent of the school suggests that in these cases the amounts payable to the pupils may be transferred to the Superintendents of Jails concerned. I approve of the suggestion and I beg to recommend that it may be adopted.

2. In case Government accept the above recommendation the necessary draft of the change in the rules will be submitted for approval.

From Lieut.-Colonel W. O'HARA, I.M.S., Inspector-General of Prisons, Madras,

No. 5405.

With reference to Judicial endorsement No. 2937, dated 27th July 1904, I have the honour to remark that under rule 1077, Jail Manual, juveniles who may be received into a jail (from the Reformatory school or otherwise) on being sentenced to a term of imprisonment are subject to the same rules as ordinary convicts in respect to the application of rules 535, 540, 541, 546, 634 and 641, Jail Manual. In accordance with those rules any money, jewellery or other property received with a prisoner is returned to him at the time of his release, while rule 1076 of the Jail Manual provides that notice shall, if possible, be sent to the parents or friends of the juvenile so as to enable them to attend at the jail and receive the juvenile. In the circumstances, the proposal of the Director of Public Instruction to transfer the amounts payable to the pupils sentenced to imprisonment to the Superintendents of Jails concerned is approved.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 515, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 17TH AUGUST 1904.

[SUBJECT.—Regarding the disposal of Earnings of Reformatory pupils transferred to Jails.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, No. 5667, dated 16th July 1904.

The Director points out that there is no provision in the rules framed under the Reformatory Schools Act, 1897, as to the disposal of the earnings* of a Reformatory pupil when he is transferred to a jail for offences committed while in the Reformatory. He therefore desires that a provision may be introduced into the rules on the lines of rule 17 (5)† of the existing rules regarding the payment of gratuity to a discharged pupil. The Superintendent of the school suggests that in such cases the amounts payable to the pupils may be transferred to the Superintendents of the Jails concerned. The Director approves of the suggestion and recommends its adoption. For orders as to whether in the circumstances the Director of Public Instruction's suggestion may be accepted and whether he may be asked to submit the draft of necessary changes in the rules of the Reformatory school.

N.L.R.—22-7-04.

Submitted that we may refer the matter u.o. to the Judicial Department, who may, if necessary, consult the Inspector-General of Prisons on the advisability of introducing a rule of the kind suggested by the Director of Public Instruction. There may be objections to the Superintendents of Jails keeping the money till the reconvicted pupils are discharged.

Sir,

Under Article XVII (v) of the Reformatory School rules sanctioned in G.O. No. 599 Educational dated 26th September 1898 the gratuity payable to a discharged pupil shall be forwarded to the Magistrate of the district in which the pupil's parents or near relations reside and the Magistrate shall deliver it to the boy when handing him over to his relatives. The rules do not however provide for the disposal of the earnings of Reformatory pupils when they are removed from the Reformatory School on being sentenced to a term of imprisonment for serious offences committed while in the Reformatory.
