To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

To the post of shorthand writer on Rs. 90-6-120

B per mensem sanctioned in G.O. No. 232, Financial, dated the 1st instant, the Honourable the Chief Justice proposes to appoint V. Venkataramana Aiyar, B.A., shorthand writer of the District Court, Chingleput, on probation for six months. V. Venkataramana Aiyar is a graduate in arts and has passed the Civil Judicial Test, the Translation Test, Higher Grade, in Tamil and the Shorthand Examination Advanced Grade. He has a total service of 6 years and 8 months and has served for 5 years and 11 months as shorthand writer in Sessions Courts in the mofussil.

The man has thus had considerable experience and is also very well qualified. He is in fact the most suitable man and the most highly recommended of all those who applied for the post. He has not passed the Precise writing Test, however, which, under the Public Service

G. Notification, is necessary for posts carrying a salary of over Rs. 60 per mensem. Considering his other qualifications, and the nature of the work he will have to do the Honourable the Chief Justice is of opinion that he need not be required to pass the Precise-writing Test. I am therefore directed to request that His Excellency the Governor in Council will be pleased to exempt ----- V. Venkataramana Aiyar from passing the Precise-writing

Test

Test with a view to his appointment as shorthand writer on the Appellate Side of the High Court.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. V. Gurusami
Ag. Registrar.

C. No. 1482 From the Registrar, High Court No 1759, dated 15-8-1904.

SUBJECT.

Permanent exemption from the Precis-writing test

In view of the strong recommendation made by the High Court in this case the exemption applied for may perhaps be granted. A draft is placed below for approval.

Re
19/8/14

It does not appear that there is any case for permanent exemption: temporary exemption for say, two years, may perhaps be sufficient. It however permanent exemption is granted, it may, it is submitted, be restricted to the post of shorthand writer on the appellate side of the High Court.
