C. No. 1319 From the S.G. of Police No. 2931, dated 26-7-1904.

SUBJECT.

Permanent exemption from the precise writing test.

The S.G. of Police recommends the permanent exemption of G. Panchapakesa Aiyar, as Inspector of Police, from the precise writing test on the ground that the applicant has consistently done good work as an acting inspector at intervals for the last 13 years. The object in making the recommendation ~~is~~ to appoint him as a probationary inspector of police on the occurrence of a vacancy. It has not however been shown whether the applicant has made any attempts to appear for, and get through, the examination. He is not debarred from appearing for the said examination under the rules. For orders as to whether in the circumstances the S.G.'s recommendation may be approved.

28/7/4
I suppose the special circumstance as his age - 42, rather old for passing examinations.

See 4/28/4

Can S.G. whether the man has ever attempted to qualify & appearing for the precise writing test, & if so in what year. In what year has he been employed?

Kesa aiyar has been appearing for the precis writing test from 1894 and has applied for it this year also and that he is now acting as Inspector of Police in the Madras district. It is now for consideration whether the permanent exemption recommended by the D.S. in his letter of the 26th July last should be sanctioned. It is very unlucky that the man will pass but as he has ~~applied~~ applied this year also the results may perhaps be awaited.
