OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE

(Land Revenue),

Madras, 29th August 1904.

The Hon. Mr. C. J. Weir (Commissioner of Land Revenue).

Read letter from R. Ramachandra Rao, Esq., acting Collector of Kurnool, Ref. on P. C. No. 719/Ver. of 1904, dated 16th August 1904.

Reference thereon D. No. 179, dated 29th August 1904.

In their order, R. No. 435 Educational, dated 17th September 1903, Government have sanctioned the exemption of H. Srinivasa Rao from the Matriculation and Hand-writing tests for one year from the date of his appointment as typist in the Collector's office, Kurnool. The Collector reports that Srinivasa Rao joined his office on 9th September 1903 and that during the 11 months he has worked in his office he has acquired great facility in type-writing and rendered himself very useful; and he recommends that the typist may be permanently exempted from the Matriculation and Handwriting tests so that he may be confirmed in his post with effect from 9th September 1903. The Collector adds that the typist cannot be kept on indefinitely on probation as he is a permanent copyist in the Penukonda District Munsif's court and is not likely to obtain a further lien, while every endeavour made to secure the services of a person qualified by both by the general Educational and the type-writing tests has proved unsuccessful.

2. The Board supports the Collector's recommendation, which if sanctioned by Government will only apply to the post at present held by the Collector's nominee, viz., that of typist on Rs. 20 rising to Rs. 25.

C. No. 1573 From the Board of Revenue: L.R. No 179, dated 29-8-1904.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the examination rules

In submitting his application for temporary exemption from the examination rules of H. Srinivasa Rao sanctioned in G.O. R. No. 435 of 17-9-03, the Collector of Kurnool said that, owing to the difficulty of procuring duly qualified candidates for appointment as type-writing clerk in his office, if Srinivasa Rao gave satisfaction and was found capable of discharging the duties of a typist efficiently, he would, after the period of one year, recommend him for permanent exemption. He now reports that, during the 11 months Srinivasa Rao has worked in his office, he has acquired great facility in type-writing and rendered himself very useful, and accordingly recommends that he may be permanently exempted from the Matriculation examination and the handwriting and dictation tests as required by the note to article 4(13) of the Public Service notification. He adds that every endeavour made to secure the services of a fully qualified person has proved unsuccessful.

2. The Board of Revenue supports the Collector's recommendation.
