NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 575, EDUCATIONAL, DATED
17TH SEPTEMBER 1904.

[SUBJECT.—Modification of the Scheme for the Management of the Property vested in the Governors of the Madras Military Female Orphan Asylum.]

From the Secretary, Military Female Orphan Asylum, No. 574, dated 13th September 1904.

The draft placed below is submitted for approval.

2. Under section 5, sub-section (2), of the Charitable Endowments Act, 1890, the Government have power to modify a scheme once settled under section 5, sub-section (1). The application should in that case be made by the persons acting in the administration of the trust—section 6, sub-section (1), clause (a). The Treasurer of Charitable Endowments is not one of them—section 8, sub-section (1).

3. The scheme settled in G.O., No. 212, Educational, dated 5th April 1904, has not yet come into force—G.O., No. 389, Educational, dated 25th June 1904. If it had, the present application should have been made by the Committee of the Lawrence Asylum; but the properties of the Military Female Orphan Asylum are still administered by the Governors of that Asylum and any modification of the scheme at present has to be made on their application.
