C. No. 89 From the Director of Public Instruction No 89, dated 8-1-1904.

SUBJECT.

Mr Middlemast's application for furlough.

p. 3 of the Current file

Mr Middlemast applies for privilege leave for 23 days from the 1st April 1904 and furlough for one year in continuation. & the S.P. I recommends the grant of the leave. The draft placed below may accordingly issue. In the application made to the Govt. of India for placing certain Educational officers on special duty while on furlough, it was stated that Mr Middlemast intended to take long leave from August 1904. - vide letter no. 432 206 d/12th Sept '03. The Govt of India in their letter no. 659 d/3rd November 1903, required some further information which is now being furnished to them. - vide letter no. 28 206 d/13-1-04. Orders are solicited whether the change in the date should be intimated to them. A draft is submitted for approval.

Recd. 13/1/04

The Gov^t of India should certainly be informed because - however unreasonable - they require notice before the officer leaves India and not before his period of special duty is to begin. - This Gov^t has not proposed any particular date for the commencement of the special duty. May the Gov^t of India be told how long Mr Middlemast will be on leave in Europe, and may it be suggested to them that they should fix the date themselves? or should Mr Middlemast be first asked what date will be convenient to him and his answer be communicated to the Gov^t of India? - Mr Middlemast asks for leave for 1 year 23 days; the proposed special duty was to be for 3 months.

Secy 4/18/04

The G.O.D. ought not to fix the date when the spl duty is to run. That sh^d depend on circumstances in Europe as to wh^{ch} they have insuff^t knowledge. But we may rep^t that Mr M. has applied for priv. leave f April & f July for a year in contin^g f July.
