OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE

(Land Revenue),

Madras, 8th September 1904

The Honourable Mr. C. J. Weir. - Commissioner of Land Revenue.

Reference D.No.192, dated 8th September 1904.

The Collector of Kistna brings to notice the difficulty experienced in manning the revenue offices in the district, particularly those in the Head quarters Deputy Collector's Division, --- owing to the paucity of men qualified by the general educational tests, and recommends that the three best of the unpassed men hold-
* Vide annexed statement ing acting appointments in the Head quarters Division may be exempted from the Handwriting and Dictation test for permanent appointments within the limits of that Division. He points out --- that a large number of clerical ~~posts~~ posts in the Gudivada and Bandar taluks are held by unpassed men on an uncertain tenure --- which is detrimental to efficient work and that unless the existing vacancies are filled up permanently he will find it very difficult to man the Deputy Collector's office to be newly established at Gudivada.

2. The Board supports the Collector's recommendation. One of the men recommended for exemption has passed the First in Arts Examination and put in an acting service of 1 year and 8 months. The other two have passed the Matriculation Examination and held acting appointments for more than two years. All of them write a legible hand as will be seen from the accompanying specimens of their handwriting.

We have here the picture of one of India's Princesses, who has had experiences that rarely fall to the lot of one of India's daughters. She had travelled far and wide, has visited Europe and even America, thus going further afield than another much travelled Princess, the charming and accomplished wife of H. H. the Gaekwar of Baroda. H. H. the Maharani of Kapurthala speaks English and French fluently and is well read in literature. She is an earnest and pious student of religious books also and exercises a beneficent influence in her husband's state. How much power is wielded by Indian women those know well who have had to do with the affairs of Indian States; how often is a wisely planned scheme obstructed or even nipped in the bud, by the "Inner Palace".

Pokkumuri Venkata Krishnakao.

There is no point to which I wish to draw the special attention of Government. In the Simnervelly accounts for November 1902 there were no less than 87 credit items and 97 debit items transferred from one head of account to another without any documents to vouch for the transactions. A detailed list is given in Appendix E. The various sub-treasury transactions and the Huzur transactions are pooled into the several columns of the posting ledgers. The several columns are totalled. These totals are then altered by having various sums added to or subtracted from them. These altered totals are posted in the monthly treasury accounts. Each alteration bears a reference such as "to refund", and on referring to this other head of account a similar alteration in the opposite direction will be found. The alterations are unattested. No reason is given for the alteration. No reference is given to any document explaining the alteration.
One of these alterations transfers a sum of Rupees 982-12-0 originally credited to "tree-topping fees" to the head "rent of toddy shops".
