The REGISTRAR,

M A D R A S.

Sir,

I have the honor to report the following case for the orders of Government.

2. R. Ananthasubbier, 5th clerk of the District Munsif's Court of Coimbatore on a salary of Rs.17½ now acting ^{as} 4th clerk on Rs.20 in consequence of a permanent vacancy in that Court, was first appointed clerk on Rs.10 in the District Munsif's Court at Kollegal in the year 1868 when the examination Rules then in force prohibited the appointments of unpassed men to any post the salary of which was in excess of Rs.25. This limit appears to have been subsequently reduced to Rs.20 in the year 1872. Ananthasubbier, who was appointed clerk on Rs.17½ in 1884 and has had no promotion since then, represents that the above rule does not apply to his case and prays that in consideration of his long service, ^{he} may be exempted from the Examination Rules and appointed permanently on Rs.20, whereby he would be entitled to an increased rate of pension.

The District Munsif, Coimbatore, reports that he is hard-working, well-behaved and holds good testimonials and is deserving of promotion, as he possesses a fair knowledge of English and has done his work efficiently.

4.

In the above circumstances, I beg to recommend his case for favourable consideration and to request that the Government may be pleased to exempt him from the Examination rules, so as to make him eligible for promotion to a post carrying a salary of Rs.20 per mensem.

C. No. 1711 From the Registrar High Court No. 1989, dated 22-9-1904.
Madras.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the examination rules.

The District Judge of Coimbatore recommends the permanent exemption from the examination rules of R. Anantashubba Aiyar, fifth clerk on Rs. 17 1/2 in the District Munsif's Court of Coimbatore for promotion to the next higher post carrying a salary of Rs. 20 per mensem. Anantashubba Aiyar was ^{in 1868} first entertained as a clerk on Rs. 10 in the District Munsif's Court at Kollegal and in 1884 was appointed to the post on ^{in the Coimbatore Court.} Rs. 17 1/2. It is represented that since then he has had no promotion. He is reported to be hard working and deserving of promotion. In Col. 6 of the application it is stated that as this clerk was found fit and efficient for the work and was ^{the} next in rank to be promoted to Rs. 20, no steps were taken to procure the services of a passed candidate. The High Court have simply forwarded the application for the orders of Govt.

Public Service notification. The rules contained in this notification shall in no wise affect the promotion of persons who held permanent appointments before they came into force on the 1st July 1894, provided that their promotion was not already barred by any rules previously in force. Under the rules in force

2. Ananta Subba Aiyar was promoted to Rs 17-8 in 1884. Under the rules in force then he could be promoted only to posts on less than Rs 20 - G.O. No 482 of 21st July 1886. In holding an appointment on Rs 20 therefore he requires exemption. Orders are solicited whether this exemption should be given.

The man has 36 years service. The High Court can sanction his retention in service till he is 60, but should they be asked whether he is still fit for duty?

The man is already 56 years of age. ~~He is~~

It is not desirable to grant him any further special exemption. The application was refused.

The draft placed below is submitted for approval.

To

The Honble the Chief Justice of the High Court of Judicature at Madras.

Honble Sir,

With reference to Mr. Gillespie's letter no. 1989 of the 29th ult. I am directed to state that H.E. the Governor in Council sees no sufficient reason to exempt R. Ananta Subba Aiyar, 5th Clerk of the District Munsif's Court of Combarore, from the examination rules.
