Stone House Hill.

Sir,

With reference to Educational Department memorandum No. 500, dated 14th September 1904, I have the honour to report that C. Rathna Mudali is already employed in the Police department and his permanent appointment is a 1st grade head constable on Rs. 25 per mensem. He cannot appear either for the Criminal Lower or Precise writing tests without the special sanction of Government. In G.O., No. 36, Educational, dated 26th January 1903, however he has been permitted to appear for the Criminal test, Lower Grade at the examinations held in October 1903 and to be held in 1904. He may or may not pass in 1904, and I therefore now request that permission may be granted for him to appear for the above two tests at the examinations to be held in October 1905 and 1906 to enable him to pass the tests within the period of his probation.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Respectfully

for Insp. - Genl. of Police.

C. No. 1596 From the J. G. of Police No. 3660, dated 5-9-1904.

SUBJECT

Temporary exemption from the Spl. tests.

The J. G. of Police recommends the temporary exemption from the Criminal test, lower grade, and the Precise writing test of one C. Rathna Mudali until the results of the examinations to be held in Oct. 1906, for employment as a substantive Probationary Inspector in the Police Department. The applicant has passed only the late Middle school examination and as such cannot appear for these tests. It is not even known whether the man is already holding any appointment in the Police Dept. The J. G. of Police may therefore be asked whether the man is already in the Police service and how, with the qualifications he is now reported to possess, he can appear for these examinations. A draft is placed below for approval.

[memo: no. 5005/14-9-04]

From the J. G. of Police no. 3918 of 26. 9-04

The J. G. now reports that Rathna Mudali is a first grade head constable in the Police Department and that he has been thereunder.

in G.P. No. 36 Est: 5726-1-03, to appear for the Criminal test, lower grade, at the examinations of 1903 and 1904. He admits that Ratna Mudali cannot appear for this or the Precise writing test after 1904 without special sanction and therefore now requests that permission may be granted to him to appear for the above two tests at the examinations of 1905 and 1906 to enable him to pass them within the period of his probation. It is clear therefore that Ratna Mudali should ~~be~~ be exempted from these tests and permitted to appear for ^{the criminal test, lower grade,} them until 1906. ~~But it is submitted that as he has already been permitted to appear at the examination of 1904, his results may be awaited before any further permission is granted. I think it will be sufficient if he is exempted from the criminal test, lower grade, and the Precise writing test with his results are announced. Orders are solicited.~~

Ru

Ratna Mudali was permitted to appear for the Criminal test lower grade, in 1903 + 1904. ^{There is} nothing to show whether he appeared for the test in 1903. If he did he can under G.O. No 234 Est dt 11th April 1904. Now appear in 1905 also.

B.

The Inspector General's request is that he may be allowed to appear for this test & for precise writing up to 1906 and that he may be exempted from both until the publication of his results at the examinations of 1906. This appears to be ^{re} solicited.

Sec 9

The exemption applies for for the Precise and Criminal lower Tests is granted until the results of the examination in 1905 are known.
