For the U.S.

Please see page 8 of G.O. 804, Financial, dated 2-12-03 (Budget Estimates of the Police Department). From the scale of establishment in District Police Offices given therein, it will be seen that there are 6 Accountants on Rs. 50 each for the whole Presidency. Inspector Pereira is not however qualified for an Accountant's post as he has not passed the Account Test. The next place is on Rs. 35 for which however no special tests are prescribed.

The

The tests prescribed for Accountants' posts on Rs. 50 in District Police offices are:-

- (1) Criminal Judicial test, Lower grade.
- (2) Account test, Higher grade and
- (3) The Precis-writing test - vide item (2) under

Police Department on page 8 of the Public Service Notification.

Mr. Pereira has however already passed the criminal test, lower grade, and the Precis writing test - vide entry against No. 29 on page 54 of the Police establishment list put up. He has, when appointed as accountant on Rs. 50, to be exempted only from the Account test, Higher grade.

Exemptions are usually granted (a) owing to difficulty of procuring passed candidates (b) as a reward for long and meritorious service.

The present case is different. The exemption is required in respect of a man who has held a more highly paid executive post, but who has been reduced, ^{being} ~~then~~ having no other posts available on the pay proposed. The post is that of an Accountant and the test for which exemption is required to the special technical test for an Accountants post. There appears however to be no option in the circumstances, but to grant the exemption applied for, though the grant would be objectionable from a mere educational standpoint. The exemption may be granted as a matter of administrative convenience.

Surely an Accountant's post on Rs. 50 requires expert knowledge of accounts as tested by examination. Does Judicial wish to put the man into such a post without any evidence of technical knowledge? Please ask Judicial?

H.M.

A Police Accountant does statistical work and very likely will not have to ^{do} any work needing a knowledge of the Codes, though of course he may have to do such work. I do not think myself, it is necessary that ~~this~~ man should have passed. My recollection of him was that he was a good enough clerk in the office, but unfit to be an Inspector. Unless he is exempted, he cannot hold a post on Rs. 50 and the Hon. Member did not think he should be reduced as low as Rs. 25. I think as a special case he may be exempted if Mr. Horne can arrange for his getting a post.
