Sir,

TO

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL,

FORT ST. GEORGE.

THE COLLECTOR OF SALEM DISTRICT.

The humble memorial of Veeraragava Mudalliar Sub-Protam Bench Clerk, Shevapet Bench Magistrate's Office, Salem, respectfully sheweth:-

That your Excellency's humble memorialist is a Matriculate of the Madras University and is the permanent kur nam of Sendarupatti village, Atur Tq. Salem Dt.

2. That though belonging to the rank of village officer, your Excellency's memorialist by dint of his own industry and hard work went up to the F.A. standard, but to his misfortune failed twice in the F.A. Examination, that domestic circumstances having in the meanwhile compelled him to seek employment, he entered the Rev. Department in 1900 and has held appointments continuously up to date as noted below:- Collector's Office, Salem:- 9th English Clerk from 16.1.00, to 2nd Feb. 00: 8th Vern. Clerk, from 2.2.00. to 24.4.00. 4th Assistant Record-keeper from 25.4.00. to 10.10.00. Abkari Clerk from 11th Oct. 00. to 12.11.00, 4th Assistant Record-keeper from 13.11.00 to 24.7.01, Taluq Gumasta, Salem, from 8.3.02, to 27.7.02, Bench Clerk from 28.7.02, to up to date.

3. That your Excellency's memorialist has not yet passed the hand-writing test.

4. That in Oct. 02, the pay of the Bench clerk was raised to Rs. 15, when your humble memorialist was holding the same appointment when it carried Rs. 10. only and though the Salem Bench clerk also an unpassed candidate, was exempted

was given the benefit of the increase of pay, and confirmation of your humble memorialist has been made conditional on his passing the hand-writing Test.

5. That your Excellency's memorialist prays that in consideration of his long acting service of four years and of his having risen from the kurnam's post, enterprising village officers have always been given encouragement by Government, he may be exempted and made permanent on Rs. 15.

For which act of kindness and charity your Excellency's humble memorialist ever prays for your long life and prosperity.

Your Excellency's humble memorialist begs to remain,

Your most obedient servant,

Salem, 22. 11. 03.

Endorsement dated 16th December 1903. No. 3691
:ooOoo:-----

Submitted through the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue).
2. The pay of the appointment of the Bench Clerk, Shevapett Bench Magistrate's Office in which the Memorialist was -- acting was raised from Rs. 10 to Rs. 15 in G.O. No. 1509, Judicial, dated 4th October 1902. The appointment then fell vacant, and the Divisional Officer confirmed him in that post subject to his permanent exemption from passing the -- Handwriting and Dictation Test. But I informed the Divisional officer that if the Memorialist's work was satisfactory and he was the best man available, the place might be kept vacant till the results of the handwriting and Dictation test for which the Memorialist had applied to appear were known. The sanction of the Board of Revenue, was accordingly obtained (in its Proceedings No. 3238, Routine, dated 19-12-02) till then, but the Memorialist failed in the Examination. The Divisional Officer then recommended his exemption from the Examination rules but said that he could not say that passed men were not available. I therefore ordered that a passed man should be selected for the post. Accordingly the Deputy Collector confirmed one U.
Venkatramanaiyar a passed candidate as Bench clerk, without prejudice to his acting appointment of Gumastah, Salem Taluk and allowed the Memorialist to continue to act as Bench clerk.

3. The Memorialist was next recommended for temporary exemption for a further period of one year, but the Board has, in its Proceedings No. 1516 Routine, dated 18th June

1903

1903 sanctioned his exemption up to the 5th March next with the remark that no further exemption will be sanctioned as the Memorialist has had several opportunities already of passing the Handwriting and Dictation Test.

4. The Memorialist now prays for permanent exemption from the Handwriting and Dictation Test and confirmation on Rs.15.

Exemption from the handwriting and dictation test.

One Viaraghava Mudaligar, sub pro tem Bench clerk in the Seovapet Bench Magistrate's office, applies for permanent exemption from the handwriting and dictation test. He is a matriculate and has an acting service of four years. He was temporarily exempted by the Board from the handwriting and dictation test twice. The Collector does not make any recommendation and the Board is not prepared to support the applicant's request. The Board further says that the applicant has had more than one opportunity of qualifying for promotion by passing the test and that passed men are available in the Salem district. In these circumstances, the exemption applied for may perhaps be refused. A draft is placed below for approval.

The only special circumstance is that petitioner was originally a village officer &c
